

Awarded Membership In
Convert Makers Group

In recognition of her work in the Catholic Lay field, Mrs. Stella Strye of Farmington was awarded a life membership in the Convert Makers of America.

She was awarded the life membership by the Reverend Father Erwin Juraschek, national director of the group.

Mrs. Strye was first associated with C. M. O. A. five years ago when she became national co-ordinator for the organization's monthly bulletins with membership throughout the United States.

She is a member of the Daughters of Isabella and Our Lady of Sorrows Parish.

John Chapman Sells Insurance

Be Sure to Bring
The Kiddies
To SeeMILKY,
Twin Pines
Magic Clown

Who Will Step Out of WJBK-TV — Channel 2 and Will Be at the Farmington
High School Gym
(Thomas Street)

Thursday, Oct. 14, 1954

at 8:00 p.m.
with him will be
THE YOLLIACK
PUPPETERS
starring in
"ALADDIN AND HIS WONDERFUL LAMP!"
Benefit — Ten Mile P.T.A.
15c Children
30c Adults

Conrad Dompierre
Weds Detroit Girl

At a High Mass Saturday morning, October 2, at St. Theresa Church, Detroit, Nora Jane Smith of Gladstone Avenue became the bride of Conrad Dompierre of 21732 Colgate Street, Farmington.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Father Fitzgerald before an altar decorated with bouquets of glads and mums.

The bride's gown was of princess style nylon tulle and rose point lace with a tulle veil. She carried a shaggy mum and pale pink orchid bouquet.

Julia Ellen Smith, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore an avoirdo chiffon dress and carried bronze mums.

Robert Dompierre, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Napoleon Raymond and Albert and Richard Dompierre.

The mothers of both the bride and groom dressed in identical colors. Both wore greyish blue dresses with pink hats and gloves and wore orchid corsages.

Following the wedding a breakfast was served at Huck's Redford Inn. In the evening a reception was held at the Dompierre residence.

The couple took a honeymoon trip to the East. For a going away outfit the bride chose a pale green knit dress. They will make their home in Farmington upon their return.

Mr. Dompierre is employed at Starr Carter Company here. Both he and his bride attended St. Theresa High School and graduated in 1952.

IT'S A BOY:

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Barber of 21817 Hawthorne Street are the proud parents of a baby boy born September 25. The new baby, named Thomas Stewart, weighed 7 pounds 6 ounces at birth.

Gifts Of Welcome To New Residents

Mrs. Dawson Hubert, 22017 Warner Street, Welcome Wagon Hostess for the Farmington area, prepares to make a call on a new resident. Her basket contains gifts of welcome from the various Farmington merchants participating in the program.

Mrs. Dawson Hubert, 22017 Warner Street, Welcome Wagon Hostess for the Farmington area, prepares to make a call on a new resident. Her basket contains gifts of welcome from the various Farmington merchants participating in the program.

Doris Maas Wed In Saturday Evening
Service At Salem Evangelical Church

Before an altar beautifully decorated with bouquets of white chrysanthemums, gladioli and summer hyacinths, Doris Louise Maas, daughter of Mrs. Herman Maas of Farmington, and Fred W. Noller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman C. Noller of Hubbardston, Michigan, exchanged wedding vows at the Salem Evangelical Church and Reformed Church on Saturday evening, October 9.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Lewis Maas, of Wayne, Michigan, with Reverend Carl H. Schultz performing the ceremonies.

Styled in simple lines, the bride's wedding gown was of white tulle with a fitted bodice and a floor length, bouffant skirt which had a short sweep. Her French illusion fingertip veil was held in place by a tulle Juliet cap of appliqued head design with tiny pearls. The bridal bouquet was valencia dais buds and button chrysanthemums.

Joyce Habermehl of Farmington was maid of honor and wore a ballerina length, iridescent crystalline tulle in peacock blue with a small white flower hat. She carried white chrysanthemum.

Three of the bridegroom's brothers assisted him. Carl Noller of Lansing was best man and Paul and Henry, both of Hubbardston, served as ushers. Also assisting ushers were Edwin Maas, brother of the bride, and Barney Simon, both of Farmington.

For the wedding the bride's mother chose a walk length blue tulle gown and wore a blue velvet hat. The groom's mother wore a rose colored tulle gown with an off-white hat. Both wore corsages of white roses.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the church parlor for about 200 relatives and friends. After the reception the V.F.W. Auxiliary Plans Bazaar, Card Party

A bazaar and card party will be held by the Farmington V. F. W. Auxiliary on November 16 at the Town Hall.

Starting at 1:00 p.m., a hot luncheon will be served and prizes awarded.

At the bazaar there will be fancy work, aprons, a bake sale and white elephant. An Afghan and a nine-piece set of pots and pans will be given away.

Everyone is invited. Mothers wishing to bring their children may do so. Care for them will be provided.

Attend Novi Blue Star Mothers' Anniversary

Mrs. Nelson Vanderburgh and Mrs. H. A. McIntyre of Farmington, along with Mrs. Roy Stricker of Highland Park and Mrs. Mary Macdonald of Detroit, attended the Twelfth Anniversary Dinner given by the Novi Chapter of Blue Star Mothers at the Novi Community Building Monday, October 11.

Mrs. Berrie Davis of Lansing was the honored guest. The Farmington Blue Star Mothers will hold their Twelfth Anniversary luncheon and program in the Farmington Town Hall on Thursday, October 21, at 1 p.m.

Henke, Kelly Wed
In Rites At Our Lady Of Sorrows

Our Lady of Sorrows Church was the setting for the recent wedding of Barbara Ruth Henke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arno Henke, to Charles R. Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence J. Kelly.

Rev. Thomas P. Benhan performed the ceremony for the 9:30 nuptial mass. The altar was beautifully decorated with white gladioli and chrysanthemums.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and long pointed sleeves. The bodice was fitted with a bouffant skirt of nylon tulle over tulle with appliques roses covering the gown.

Her veil was fingertip length of illusion tulle. She carried a nother of pearl prayer book mounted with a white orchid and streamers of ephemerals.

The maid of honor, Miss Karen Kelly, sister of the groom, and the three bridesmaids, Miss Joyce Henke, sister of the bride, Miss John McDonald and Miss Connie Kelly, all wore sky blue tulle length gowns of nylon tulle over tulle with head pieces to match. They each carried a garland of yellow roses and baby mums.

Paul Kelly was his brother's best man. Ushers were Orville L. Henke, brother of the bride, James Bowman and Richard Bowman.

The groom's mother wore a dusty pink lace dress with white accessories and the bride's mother wore a pure white dress with black accessories.

Following the ceremony a breakfast was served at Saratoga Farms.

In the late afternoon and evening a lawn reception was held at the home of the groom's parents.

For the bride's going away outfit, she wore a light gray suit with blue accessories.

The couple took an extended trip to the West Coast.

Woodcreek Farms Women Plan Garment Collection

The Woodcreek Farms Women's Association will hold its annual gathering for the Needlework Guild of America again this year. Contributions of two new garments of the same size and kind are requested. They may be for either children or adults. Articles of household linen or cash donations are also welcomed.

The W. G. A. is a charitable organization which collects new garments and distributes them to hospitals, homes and other institutions.

Articles should be brought to the home of Mrs. Conrad Lum, 25120 Westbrook, on Tuesday, October 19. Donors are invited to a brunch at 11:00 a.m.

McHugh's Celebrating
25th Wedding Year

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McHugh of 26260 Powers Road will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary on October 18 with a party to be given in their honor on Sunday, October 17.

Mr. McHugh is a partner in the local Ford agency of Berling-McHugh. He has been associated with Ford in Farmington since 1949 and became a partner with Mike Berling in 1950.

The McHughs moved to Farmington in 1951 from their home in Dearborn, where Mr. McHugh was employed prior to taking a position here.

They have three children, Raymond, Donald and Fred.

Plans Completed For Town Club Attic Sale

Plans have now been completed and everything made ready for the Town Club Attic Sale, to be held at the Town Hall on Friday of this week from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

A large selection of used clothing from infants' wear to adult sizes will be available, as well as many other items including dishes, kitchen utensils, books, games, and even some furniture.

Chairman of the sale is Mrs. Walter Lange.

Neither piety, virtue, nor liberty can long flourish in a community where the education of youth is neglected.

Wit is the salt of conversation, not the food.

Clarenceville Opti-Mrs.
Meet, Enjoy Book Review

The Opti-Mrs. Club of Clarenceville met Tuesday, October 5, at Huck's Redford Inn for their regular business meeting, followed by a review of the book "Forty Plus and Fancy Free" by Emily Kimbrough.

Presenting the book review was Mrs. Wiedtke, Mrs. Eunice Clemens, vice president, presided at the meeting in the absence of Mrs. E. Deane Elsen, president.

Plans were also made by the Opti-Mrs. for their Hard Time Square Dance, to be held November 5 at the V. F. W. Hall on Seven Mile Road near Grand River.

Grace Lutheran To Hold Rummage Sale Saturday

A rummage sale will be held at Grace Lutheran Church, 25630 Grand River, on Saturday, October 23, beginning at 9:00 p.m. in the church basement.

Members of the Naomi and Ruth Circles are sponsoring the sale, under the chairmanship of Velma Hers and Bernice Sewell.

Clothing of all kinds, household articles, furniture, etc., will be sold.

Planning Carnival
At Clarenceville

The five Mothers' Clubs of the Clarenceville School District are planning a carnival to be held at the Clarenceville High School on November 9. The main attraction will be T.V.'s Wides Wonderland (Channel 7).

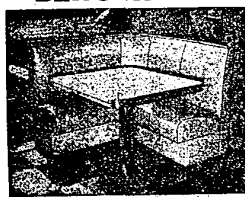

Also featured will be the Cub Scouts of Troop 279, who will do an Indian dance. This troop has been chosen the best of all troops in the Greater Detroit area. It will be their first opportunity to put on their famous dance in this area. Among their other appearances this summer was one at the Michigan State Fair.

The carnival will also include a bazaar and a supper, serving to start at 6 p.m.

Proceeds from the carnival will be used by the Mothers' Clubs to buy equipment for the different rooms in the schools located in the Clarenceville District.

A mobile, extensible belt conveyor for use with continuous mining machines, said to be capable of increasing coal mining productivity by as much as 50% without adding to the working force, has just been made available to the industry.

BEAUTIFUL FORMICA DINETTES

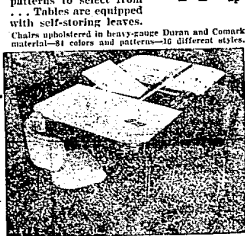

Formica dinette is triple-plated, including copper, nickel and chrome.

Formica Sink Tops
Low As $29.95

Odd Chairs
Choice of Colors
ONLY $6.95

Tables made to order any size or shape, including round, square and oval. 20 colors and patterns to select from. Tables are equipped with self-storing leaves. Chairs upholstered in heavy-gauge Duran and Comark material—81 colors and patterns—14 different styles.

Formica dinette is triple-plated, including copper, nickel and chrome.

METALMASTERS MFG. CO.

Factory Branch: Gratiot at Ten Mile Rd., East Detroit. Prescott 5-5200

Redford 27268 Grand River
Dearborn 24332 Michigan Ave.
Royal Oak 4436 N. Woodward

Hours: 10 a.m. to 8:30 p.m., Sundays 12 to 5:30

NOW OPEN IN OUR NEW LOCATION

GRAND RIVER at NINE MILE ROAD

Farmington Radio & T.V. Co.

Formerly at 33304 Grand River -- Across from the Kroger Store

Specials

on All Merchandise for Our Opening

See Our Large Screen Color T.V.

We Invite You to Visit Our

NEW BUILDING and SHOW ROOM

Mr. and Mrs. GENE HYMES, Proprietors

HALLOWEEN SPECIALS

costumes

Scary disguises for spooksters of all ages.
Be the fright of the party.
Hurry in for best selection!
"Your best friend won't know you."

We've brewed up a batch of Halloween street treats with new taste sensations ranging from "candy corn" to chewy caramels, with oodles of delicious delights in between!

MAC'S 5c to $5 STORE
Farm. 0365 33317 Grand River