Nancy Blue Married In Double Ring Ceremony At Our Lady Of Sorrows

At a double ring ceremony Saturday morning at Our Lady of Sorrows Church, Nancy Ann Blue of 29185 Ten Mile Road became the bride of Robert Edward Stebbins of Detroit. She was given in marriage by her father, Carl Blue.

The bride was lovely in a white lace gown with long sleeves, mandarin style collar, hoop skirt and long train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a Juliet cap covered with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of small tea roses with white streamers.

The bride was lovely in a white lace gown with long sleeves, mandarin style collar, hoop skirt and long train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a Juliet cap covered with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of small tea roses with white streamers.

The ceremony was performed by Father Dunn before an altar decorated with glads and mums, with vocal selections being rendered by the school choir.

For the occasion the bride's mother chose a dinner length gown of blue taffeta with matching accessories and a red rose corsage. The groom's mother wore a tuxedo-colored dinner length lace gown with accessories to match. Her corsage was of yellow tea roses.

A breakfast was served at 12 noon at the American Legion Hall and was followed by a reception in the evening at the same place. Approximately 300 attended, including twenty relatives from Bay City, Michigan.

The bride attended Farmington High School and was employed at the Sears, Roebuck and Company prior to her marriage. The groom, also employed there, attended St. Leo's in Detroit and served four years as a paratrooper, recently being discharged. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stebbins.

The bride chose a tan suit with matching accessories for a honeymoon to Washington, D. C. The couple will make their home in Detroit upon their return.

The Trinity Shrine will hold a bazaar, luncheon and rummage sale on Friday, October 29, at the Masonic Temple.

NOTED EVANGELIST MINISTER TO GIVE SERVICES IN AREA

Dr. Tom Malone of Pontiac will be speaking in an evangelistic meeting in this area November 1 to 7. The meeting is sponsored by the Calvary Baptist Church of which Herbert Joe is pastor.

The first five services, November 1 to 5, Monday through Friday, will be held at the Volney Smith School. The school is located at Lexington at Vassar, between Seven Mile Road and Grand River, six blocks west of Beech River. Services will be at 7:30 p.m. and 7:30 a.m. on Sunday, November 7, will be held at the V. F. W. Hall 345, the temporary meeting place of the Calvary Baptist Church. The hall is located at 25245 West Seven Mile Road, two blocks west of Grand River.

Dr. Tom Malone is well known to many residents of this area through his daily radio broadcast over WCAE Pontiac at 8:45 each morning. The broadcast is now in its fourteenth year. He has been pastor of the Emmanuel Baptist Church of Pontiac since its founding twelve years ago. Besides being a pastor and a radio minister, Malone has founded two schools, the Emmanuel Christian Day School, now in its fifth year, and the only Baptist Day School in Michigan; and the Midwest Baptist Seminary, in its first year.

All people of this area are cordially invited to attend the evangelistic meetings.

B. Habermehl Takes Janet Howard Of Detroit As Bride October 9

MR. and MRS. BRUCE HABERMEHL

In a colorful ceremony Saturday evening, October 9, at the Calvary Evangelical United Brethren Church in Detroit, Janet Florence Howard of 15474 Ardmore, Detroit, became the bride of Bruce A. Habermehl of 23014 Maple Street, Farmington.

The double-ring, candle light service was conducted by the Reverend W. C. Bassett, pastor of the church. Organ selections were played by Mrs. Sain with Harry McGary singing "Always" and "Because."

The bride was lovely in a chapel length white satin and nylon tulle gown with a small Chiffon collar. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a hand type headpiece made of nylon lace and covered with tiny pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses and baby mums with a cluster of red carnations in the center.

Maid of honor was Miss Kathryn Erickson. She wore an iridescent princess style tulle paper dress of deep rose and carried a bouquet of baby mums and cream and tulle roses. Serving as bridesmaids were Mrs. Donald Kennedy, Mrs. Arthur Matson and Miss Marion House, a cousin of the groom. All wore deep turquoise princess style silk dresses and carried baby mums and tulle rose bouquets.

Acting as best man for the groom was James Byron. Groomsmen were Michael Stanek, Arthur Matson and Joseph Howard. Mr. Howard is a brother of the bride. Little Kathleen Howard, a cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a pink and white dress and carried a basket of rose petals.

Mrs. Harry Howard, the bride's mother, chose for the wedding a two-piece turquoise dress. Mrs. C. Ann Habermehl, mother of the groom, wore an off-the-shoulder baby blue taffeta dress. Both chose rhinestone accessories and wore navy blue hats and shoes. Corsages of yellow tea roses were worn by both mothers.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the church basement with sandwiches, cake, tea, cream and punch served. Miss Joan Howard, cousin of the bride, acted as guest registrar. About 250 guests were present.

After the church reception, the bride's attendants, out of town guests, relatives and friends were entertained at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

The bride chose a deep turquoise wool dress for going away. The newlyweds honeymooned in Rock Island and Moline, Illinois, and have now returned and are making their home at 15740 Cruse Street in Detroit.

The groom is a 1953 graduate of Farmington High School and is presently employed at the Earl Vinyard Oldmobile Agency. His bride is a 1953 graduate of Cooley High in Detroit and is employed at the Detroit Teachers Credit Union.
