DANCE FOR FRIDAY

Sadie Hawkins Day was chosen as the theme of the Sophomore dance to be held tomorrow night.
In keeping with the theme, the dance will be girl-bid.
If was suggested that when a girl asks a boy she gives him a patch to sew on his trousers. It was also suggested that the week receeding the dance be designated "Slave Week." During the week the girls have been doing the large wisked.
To further carry out the theme it is suggested that the couples dress alike in slacks or jeans.
The Sophomores also plan to have a "Marrying Sam" and someone to take pictures of the couples.
Committees were chosen last week and the chairmen are; publicity, Karen Senob; decurations, Genny Nelson and John Strickland; Marry Jo Pishell.
The dance is scheduled for $1.30 in the Farmington gym on Thomas Street.

STUDY, HARD WORK ORDER OF DAY FOR SENIOR PLAY CAST

SENIOR PLAY CAST
Groans, albs, and sighs echoed throughout the gym as Mr. Ray Sherpitis, play director, assigned character sketches to cast members.
The cast has found out that the play isn't just a nightly excuse for getting out of the house and away from homework.
Fourteen page writen sketches,
Fourteen page writen sketches,
Fourteen page writen sketches, their parts. However, after talking with some of the cast, the 14 pages were reduced to 2 or 3.
The cast chose Dlane Ports and Jack Phelips, known in the play as Miss Burgess and Mr. Carter respectively, to go to the Wayne radio station in Detroit, where they page sover F. M. Radio. Gordon Harshfield, student director, eccompanied them.
