

Third Lecture in Series On Bible Set For Sunday

The "Effect of Science and Archeology on the Bible" will be the title of the lecture to be given by the Rev. Russell L. Lincoln in the auditorium of the Farmington Universalist Church on Sunday, November 7, at 7:30 p.m. This is the third in a series of five lectures dealing with the historical development of the Bible. As in the previous lectures, Mr. Lincoln will limit his formal address to 45 minutes, and a discussion period of equal length will follow.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Pardokian and a daughter, from Detroit, were guests of Mrs. Howard Palmer on Shady-side Avenue one day last week.

New Bell Manager

ROBERT D. MAURER

Robert D. Maurer has been named manager of the Plymouth area for the Michigan Bell Telephone Company.

He replaces Dean Sigmon, who became commercial customer relations supervisor in Detroit.

The Plymouth area includes Northville, Farmington, and Livonia.

Maurer began his telephone career in 1912 as a salesman in Detroit. He transferred to Ann Arbor in 1947 where he was promoted to sales supervisor in 1952. He has been with his present assignment since 1953.

During World War II, Maurer served with the U. S. Army Signal Corps in the China-Burma-India theater.

He lives in Plymouth with his wife, Bernice, and two children.

American Legion News

The Farmington Post of the American Legion, Groves-Walker Post 346, is now making plans for a big membership drive. A special meeting to discuss plans has been called by the group for Tuesday, November 9, at 8 p.m. The Legion Hard Time Ball last Saturday gave all indications of being a big success. Group dancing seemed to attract major interest, as did the Charleston.

Groves-Walker Post will be sending representatives to Birmingham for a district meeting regarding the Civil Defense program.

Frank McGowan, Bob Young, and Bill Leffert fired to a three-way tie on the rifle range last week. Following firing at the range it was quite evident that many need much more practice. Practice sessions are now being planned.

Joe DeVriendt, active in the American Legion, was lapped up for a few days but is now back at his duties as police chief.

POLITICAL BATTLES over prisons have become a major preoccupation for legislators and Governor Williams.

They started with the first Jackson State Prison riot in 1952 and have raged since, both sides hoping for peace in the cellblocks and touting up self-saving excuses if the lid blows again.

Key points of past skirmishes are pretty well known — the blame-fixing after the riots, the surveys, the demands for more prison space and the reluctance of lawmakers to spend unlimited money.

The next will be fought over a plan developed by the corrections commission, all appointees of Governor Williams.

It envisions a long-range multi-million dollar building program. A new 1,200-man prison, a separate reception center, a new women's prison and other things.

Start looking for the first shots in the 1955 session of the legislature.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Laughman of Mayfield Avenue visited the latter's father, Ernest Tailman, in Florence Crittenden Hospital in Detroit Thursday evening. Mr. Tailman, who has been a patient in the hospital since October 11, is now "not too good."

Girl Scout News

Eighteen women from Southern Ontario County contacted a Troop Camp licensing course last Saturday at Camp Narrin, qualifying them as troop leaders to take girls on overnight camping trips.

The course consisted of three five-hour town sessions and a two-day session at Camp Narrin.

Among those taking the course was Lucille Langley, leader of a Troop. The two days at Camp Narrin provided a basic knowledge of the everyday necessities of outdoor living with hiking, conservation games, crafts and many other activities. Sessions ended before a huge campfire Saturday evening, with the group reciting the Scout Oath.

Troop 20, a new Brownie group at the Universalist Church, is led by the leadership of Martha Dickerson, is now under way. Dorothy Cassell and Mrs. Curtis Weaver are co-leaders. The group has been meeting since September 25.

There are 13 girls in the group. They are Linda Benson, Janice Cassell, Linda Cox, Nancy Davis, Jorie Dickerson, Marjorie Dowling, Lucinda Parsons, Barbara Jo Smith, Sue Smith, Rita Taylor, Cathy Tiersen, Nancy Thompson, and Paula Weaver.

Mrs. M. A. Baraun will be staying at Grace Hospital for the next few weeks. A card or letter would be appreciated.

Troops from Our Lady of Sorrows Parish took part in gals' Halloween parties during the past week.

Brownie Troop 170, under the leadership of Mrs. Fred Bader and co-leader Mrs. James Duffy, held a party on Tuesday, October 27, at the home of Mrs. Duffy.

Wearing the false faces they had made at a previous meeting, the girls lunched on cup cakes and candy furnished by the mothers, along with cold drinks and ice cream.

Troop 228, under leader Mrs. Guy Boatman and co-leader Mrs. Johnson, also had ice cream, candy, and cold drinks served on tables decorated with pumpkins. Kathy Coklin and Kathy McAskin provided entertainment with their dance routine.

Brownie Troop 165, led by Mrs. Petersmark and co-leader Marie Lepo, also had jack-o-lanterns decorated their tables for a party. They wore paper bag masks made by themselves and treats furnished by Brownie mothers.

Every individual nature has its own beauty.

SMALL GAME, DEER LICENSES NOW IN DEALERS' HANDS

Licenses dealers in every nook and cranny of the state are now equipped to provide back tags, licenses, deer seals, game law digests, game call report cards, camp permits and general information on Michigan's forthcoming seasons.

For the small game season, 514,000 licenses were distributed with 1,000 corresponding back tags. Game law digests mailed out totaled 1,565,000.

The deer seasons presented special mailing and record-keeping problems. For example, each of the 470,000 regular deer licenses had to be accompanied by a back tag and seal with a corresponding number. Licenses, seals and back tags for 20,000 non-resident deer hunters necessitated a special handling. The bow and arrow season meant more record keeping and mailing for 10,000 residents and 10,000 non-resident hunters. There were 4,500 camp permits. Application blanks for the special anti-deer permits totaled 200,000. All of this was done in 20 working days.

Most students who have heard this "specialist" and the college officials who have permitted him to lecture at their institutions, think he is an honest liberal. But in the FBI we know better. We have proof that he is a concealed Communist and we know that he is under direct orders of the Communist Party, USA, which follows the Moscow line. This scholarly individual's activities have been somewhat curtailed of late, but others like him are still assailing the minds of youth with Red lies.

With the Reds working so cunningly among American youngsters in schools and colleges, it is all the more important, as I have repeatedly said, for all schools to have a sound course in American citizenship education to fortify our youngsters against this undermining phase of Communism's attack upon our nation.

Gratitude is much more than a verbal expression of thanks. It implies a deeper appreciation of the good which has been done for us. It expresses more gratitude than speech.

PASTEL COLORS STILL LEADING IN CHINAWARE

Style developments in china and glass follow the old pattern of pastel coloration, platinum trim and graceful, contemporary decoration. However, new lines show that colored rims are still good, as well as scattered leaves and that old standby, the center spray.

Barthenware is more interesting this year. Here the pastel color palette has been expanded to include apricot, mint green, turquoise and sandalwood. Blacks and grays are stronger than ever, a color just returned to the fashion fold is fire engine red.

The repertoire of decorative motifs follows the familiar patterns of jack-straws, stripes, starbursts, leaves and flowers. The latter two categories have undergone an eye-pleasing change, however. Center and side sprays have been exploded and the parts allowed to fall where they may. Worked in the season's exciting color palette, these random patterns appear fresh, indeed.

Styles strike off in three directions: A non-exaggerated, modern, Provincial (Scandinavian and Early American) and imitation of the classic look.

Stoneware assumes silhouettes of middle height, favoring oval bowls and scattered gray or polished geometric cuttings.

Serving pieces reflect an aura of elegance with their sleek shapes and black, gold and white color schemes. Modern and Grecian motifs vie with one another for first place.

Obituary

Miller G. Davis

Mr. Miller G. Davis of 27625 Power Road died October 31 in St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital, Pontiac.

He was born September 25, 1894, in Farmington Township, the son of Winter and Jennie (Roche) Davis.

Mr. Davis leaves one brother, Samuel G. Davis of Farmington, and two sisters, Mrs. Forest (Lucille) Dickerson of Farmington and Mrs. David J. (Gladys) Nelson of Birmingham. One brother, Marshall B. Davis, preceded him in death December 13, 1941.

Funeral services were held from the Spencer J. Heeney Funeral Home at 2:00 p.m. Tuesday, with Rev. Russell L. Lincoln of the Farmington Universalist Church officiating.

Interment was in North Farmington Cemetery.
