Offer Tips On Purchase, Use Of Stewing Beef

Use Of Stewing Beer Here's a good tip for using beef stew meat. When you see an extra good buy in beef stew meat, buy several pounds — enough to last for two or three days — and make up a basic stew, omitting the vegetables.

Store in the refrigerator and serve every other day during the week, cooking different vegetables with the meat each time. Or, freeze several batches of the stewed beef to use within a few weeks.
