GOODWILL TRUCKS TO BE IN NOVI AREA NOVEMBER 16

Helping others to help themselves is typically American. That is why so many people are interested in the program of self-help for the physically handicapped conducted by Goodwill Industries. Through the collection, repair and sale of household discards, Goodwill Industries provides employment, wages and rehabilitation to nearly 100 handicapped adults.

The Goodwill trucks will be in Novi on Tuesday, November 16. To contribute your discards, call your local Goodwill representative. In Novi call Mrs. Harnden at Northville 9142.

An easy way to help Goodwill Industries help others is by contributing repairable discards of clothing, shoes, hats, toys, furniture and small appliances. These articles are needed in the Goodwill workshops now more than ever.

Friday afternoon, October 23, Mrs. Francis Smith of Woodbine Avenue tendered a stork shower in honor of Mrs. Don Brook, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Wolfe of Shady Side Avenue. Twenty-five ladies were in attendance. Among those present from out of town were Mrs. Clarke Homan of Salem and Mrs. George Thorne of Ypsilanti. Gifts were presented and family refreshments climaxed the affair.

At their home on Shady Side Avenue Sunday afternoon, Mrs. E. W. Stange and Mrs. Russell Ault were hosts at a Halloween dinner party. Their children and grandchildren were all present. Mrs. E. W. Stange of Mayfield Avenue was an all-day guest on Saturday, October 30, of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Judd, and her family near Grand Rapids. Mrs. Albert Owen, who has been seriously ill in Sessions Hospital, has returned to his home on Mayfield Avenue and is back at his employment.

At her home on Shady Side Avenue Tuesday, November 2, Mrs. Ralph VonHeis was hostess at a luncheon party. A sister, Mrs. Norman Golic of Detroit, was an out of town guest.

Mrs. Don Masters and her son, David, of Wyandotte, were guests on Sunday, October 31, of Mrs. Masters' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Grant of Farmington Road.

The E. C. Harrison home on West Eight Mile Road, which was recently damaged by fire, is now being repaired and rebuilt. By Christmas time it is expected to be ready for occupancy. While waiting, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison are residing with their son, Tom Harrison, and his family.

Saturday, October 30, an eight-pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harley Hooker of Filmore Avenue and a four-pound four-ounce son, Bruce, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Bob Dickieson of Parker Avenue. For a few weeks the latter baby will live in an incubator.

A Stanley party at the home of Mrs. Albert Owen of Mayfield Avenue on Tuesday, November 2, proved enjoyable to all. A dozen ladies were present. Mrs. Ann Currie of Redford directed activities. Doughnuts and coffee enlivened the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Altman of East Detroit and the latter's mother from Hancock, Michigan, were dinner guests on Sunday, October 31, of Rudy Altman's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Altman, on Shady Side Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Ault of Brentwood Avenue were in Ypsilanti Thursday evening attending a celebration honoring the fourth wedding anniversary of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Thorne.

Mrs. E. W. Stange, Mayfield Avenue, spent the November 6 week end with her daughter, Mrs. William Griffith and her family, in Dearborn.

Mrs. Emerson Ault of Mayfield Avenue is spending a week or two with her cousin, Mrs. T. J. Slevin, in Uniontown, Ohio.

The monthly pick-up by the Goodwill Industries, from Detroit, in this area last Monday met with fair response. The next collection will be on Monday, December 6. Call Farmington 1461-M to arrange for a pick-up.

Sunday, October 24, a seven-pound two-ounce son, Martin Louis, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bowman of Parker Avenue.

Paul Dolyard, son of Mrs. Norma Holyard of Parker Avenue, is a victim of mumps.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Holyard of Hubbard Avenue recently enjoyed a week end hunting trip in northern Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Roberts of Mayfield Avenue spent the November 6 week end with their daughter, Mrs. Robert Padot, in Monroe. On Sunday Mrs. Padot gave a dinner party honoring her mother's birthday.

Friends from out of town gathered at the home of Howard Palmer on Shady Side Avenue Wednesday evening, November 3, to help him celebrate his 21st birthday. A handsome birthday cake provided the centerpiece. Later, on Sunday, Mr. Palmer's parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Pedakian of Detroit, tendered a birthday dinner to their son-in-law.

A shower was tendered Friday evening, November 5, to James Michael, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Morgan, at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Graham of Mayfield Avenue. Due to the illness of the baby's mother, the shower was a belated affair. A large group of admirers, including friends from Detroit, Northville and Farmington, as well as the immediate community, was on hand for the occasion. The young man received many handsome gifts, ice cream and cake were the climax of the party.

Sunday, October 31, the Neighborhood Sunday School enjoyed a banner attendance, even greater than that of Rally Day. The Sunday provisions, Halloween revelry seemed to increase rather than interfere with interest in the school.

Mrs. Herman Schult, who moved to Elwood, Indiana, a few weeks ago, returned here for a few days last week to attend to some business matters.
