Girl Scout News

The Clarenceville Girl Scout Association will hold its annual election of officers at the next meeting on December 6 at the home of Mrs. Hartshorn, 20215 Gilman Road. A drive is on to have every active registered member attend.

A good turnout honoring Girl Scout Week was reported at the Clarenceville Methodist Church November 7. A sermon was given to approximately 100 Scouts and Brownies by Reverend Elsie Johns.

Girl Scouts and leaders of Clarenceville were given a big "Thank You" by officials at the combined Mothers' Club carnival for their services at the nursery.

Troop 2 Girl Scouts are now busy working toward badges as girls in the troop are now old enough to go into Senior Scouts and the troop will be disbanded February 1. Two girls, Donna Rice and Margo McGlocklin, are now Carved Ber Scouts. Two other girls will attain that rank soon. They are Patricia Nye and Carol Dennis. Sharon Butler and Betty Mills will be moving up to First Class ranks. Girls are now making Christmas gifts under the direction of their leader, Charlotte Rice, who is making plans for a Christmas party for the troop.

Shorter work days and weeks give us both time and money to indulge in after-hours "puttering" and hobbies. Tools for home workshops amounted to a $100 million business a year or so ago, and it's more today.
