ert J. Derengowski won a point, however.

He resumed through a motion which will empower the committee - two Democrats and one Republican - to expand the consideration to determine whether the company's existing rates are too high.

"We will make our findings known when we make the decision on the rate increase," said Chairman John H. McCarthy.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish all our column friends a happy Thanksgiving Day and express my thanks to you for your kind cooperation in offering material for this column.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hedson, Sr., and their son, Richard, of 2233 Springbrook Drive, were called to Hilldale, Michigan, last week by the illness of Mrs. Hedson's sister, Mrs. Hennessey. Her husband, who has been on the sick list for some time, was taken to the hospital for continued care following his wife's illness.

June Bartholmew and Mrs. Helen Hallin for a toy demonstration last week. Another neighbor, Mrs. Sally White of Eleven Mile Road, was the demonstrator.

Last week in a wedding story it was reported that Joyce Adelle of 3672 Farmington Road was wed to Raymond Williamson. The name is Raymond and not Raymond; our apologies.

Edward Roggenbuck's elderly father suffered a severe stroke recently. He is being cared for by Mr. and Mrs. Roggenbuck at their home on Haynes Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lucas, Jr., returned from their one-week vacation at Iron Mountain, Michigan, the proud possessors of a nice deer.

In 1935 the Navy had 80 destroyers -- 30 in the Atlantic and 50 in the Pacific. Today there are 125 destroyers in the Pacific alone.

The Esther Circle of Clarenceville Methodist Church held a regular monthly meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. S. Powers Road. There were 15 ladies present. Plans were made for the Christmas party to be held next month.

Among the many who traveled to the north country in search of a deer were Mr. and Mrs. Hodgson, son of West Eight Mile Road. While the men were hunting, Mrs. Hodgson spent the week end with her daughter in Lansing.

As a result of an accident while at play, seven year old Jimmy Kendrick suffered injuries to the head which required several stitches. He is the son of the Homert Kendricks of Springbrook Drive.

Camp Campbell, Kentucky, is the new home of Mrs. Mildred Christie and her son. They left here last week to make their home with Private Nick Christie, Sr., who is taking parachute training there.

Mrs. Gerald Bassett of Albion Street celebrated her birthday on November 15. Included in the celebration was a trip out to dinner and then to downtown Detroit to see the play "The Moon Is Blue." Mrs. Bassett didn't say what birthday she was celebrating but it sounds like she had a really nice time.

Carlean Curry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Curry of Roosevelt Street, celebrated her eighth birthday Sunday afternoon, November 21, with a party at her home. Games were played and ice cream and cake served to 23 of her little friends who came to help her celebrate. Carlean received many lovely gifts.

Looking Ahead

means "Stalin, in 'These of the V' World Congress of the Communist International,' 1928.

From Malenkov, the newest master of the world-wide Communist conspiracy: "This task of reaching and overtaking the leading capitalist states in its turn is conditioned by the impossibility of prolonged peaceful coexistence of the Soviet state with capitalist states." Published in "Bolshevik," November, 1926.

The recent shocking report on Communist aggression, compiled by five Republican and four Democratic Congressmen (House Report No. 2650), after exhaustive investigations, made this statement: "The leaders of the Kremlin drink a toast to coexistence. They ardently hope that the free world will adopt a policy of coexistence, with international Communism . . . all the evidence before our committee conclusively proves that the Communists want time -- not to become civilized -- but to digest their gains and to mold their millions of captive peoples into willing slaves of greater aggression."
