

In And Around Springland

MRS. RALPH EVERT Phone 2381-J

On Tuesday, November 30, the regular meeting of the Board of Directors of the Forest Hill Civic Association was held at the home of Mr. Herbert Neal, president of the association. Mr. Victor Rust and Mr. Charles Baers were present to give the status of the legal steps now being taken to prevent the moving of the 35 condemned duplex buildings to the Schroeder Road area.

Mr. Carsen was appointed chairman of a committee to represent the association at the next Township Board meeting.

On December 1, the Springland Ladies Club held its social meeting at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Evans on Ridgeway Drive. An evening of cards and games was enjoyed. Refreshments were served by the hostess. At the close of the evening prizes were awarded to Mrs. J. Waatt, Mrs. T. Mangel and Mrs. R. Evert.

Guests present included Mrs. J. Henige, Mrs. W. Thomas, Mrs. H. Boucher, Mrs. C. Simler, Mrs. J. Vairo, Mrs. J. Mitchell, Mrs. T. McDonough, Mrs. E. Dobbin, Mrs. D. Robertson, Mrs. D. Garrison, Mrs. C. Sierka, Mrs. J. Waatt, Mrs. W. Mitchell, Mrs. A. Schuen, Mrs. R. Corryell, Mrs. J. Simon, Mrs. T. Mangel, Mrs. R. Evert and Mrs. L. Evans.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. R. Evert on January 15.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Constable of Worthington, Minnesota, are visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. R. M. Grinaker and family, in Holly Hill Drive.

Mrs. Edward Archambault of Ridgeway Drive is recovering well from a recent attack of neuritis.

On December 1, Mr. and Mrs. E. Hobbins of Ridgeway Drive were delighted by a surprise visit from their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hobbins from Hudson, Michigan.

Captain Karl T. Larsen and Mrs. Larsen, with their son Eric, will spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph of Orchard Lake Road. Larsen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Corryell. The Larsens are on route from Cedar Falls, Iowa, to their new home at Harman Air Force Base, Newfound.

Captain Larsen is a dental surgeon in charge of the hospital at the Harman Air Force Base.

PRESIDENT'S TEA HELD BY GARDEN CLUB DECEMBER 6

The success of the Farmington Garden Club choral group in singing together at the club's President's Tea December 6 proved so successful, club officials stated, that the group will continue to sing together.

They will sing at the various convalescent homes in the area and possibly elsewhere.

At the past presidents of the club were honored. Past presidents present were Mrs. Clarence Bickling, Mrs. Warren Joy, Mrs. Walter Humphreys, Mrs. Ray Eichler, Mrs. John W. Grant, and Mrs. Paul S. Calkins.

In formal ceremonies, Mrs. V. L. Nelson, one of the founders of the club 25 years ago, presented the former presidents and Mrs. Howard Richards, the outgoing president, with the National Garden Club president's pins.

The club's annual greens market and workshop will be held on Tuesday, December 14, from 10:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at the Farmington Town Hall.

Christmas green and supplies for making home decorations as well as instructions in the art will be available to members. It is requested that those attending bring sandwiches and coffee. Lunch will be served at noon.

Thirty-six reported fires burned 114 acres of forests and grasslands in Michigan last week.

Welcome Wagon Hostess, A Modern Santa Claus, Brings Gifts All Year

A modern Santa Claus is becoming a familiar sight around Farmington these days.

Instead of a team of reindeers, this feminine Santa bears gifts not only in winter but every day of the year. Her "sleigh" is a bright red '63 Rambler Station wagon which will soon be visiting newcomers to this community bearing gifts and a friendly handshake from Farmington merchants.

This real life version of Santa Claus is Mrs. Charlotte Hubert, Farmington's Welcome Wagon hostess.

A next member of the ever-growing fraternity of mercantile welcome wagon sponsors is Tavern Auto Sales, 25001 Grand River, a forty year member of the community. The firm has provided Mrs. Hubert with the bright red Rambler Wagon for delivering gifts.

The Welcome Wagon program began more than 25 years ago in Memphis, Tennessee. The community service is now represented in more than 1250 cities in every state of the union. More than 4,000 hostesses are a part of the program sponsored by some 40,000 merchants.

The program began in the Farmington area in October after Mrs. Hubert had completed an intensive training program in New York.

The phenomenal growth of the Farmington community has felt the impact of W. W. already as a means of making newcomers feel at home and provides a friendly link between business firms and their future customers.

PILE FABRICS NEED CARE IN CUTTING AUTHORITY STATES

Guy-colored corduroy and velvet skirts and jumpers are high on the fashion list. Many of you will want to get busy with the sewing machine so you can add them to your wardrobe.

Both corduroy and velvet are pile fabrics, explains Mary Gephart of the Michigan State College textile department. The pile usually slants slightly in one direction. This causes the material to reflect light differently when opposite ends are placed side by side. By running your hand over the pile you can easily feel the smoothness of the fabric in the direction in which the pile slants.

When cutting pile fabrics from commercial patterns, the yardage needed is listed under "fabrics with nap." If panels of a skirt are cut with the nap running in different directions, one part of the skirt will be a lighter color than the other. This happens when the pattern pieces have been laid out in a "doreal" fashion. You will probably need more material when making clothes with nap fabrics, so check the amount suggested.

Mrs. Gephart suggests cutting pile fabrics with the top of each pattern piece facing in one direction. Velvet is cut with the pile running up; this gives a richer and deeper color. But for longer wear, corduroy is cut with the pile running down.

CORP. BILLY JOE ROBBINS

Marine Billy Joe Robbins of Livonia was recently promoted to the rank of Corporal at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina, where he is stationed as a baking school instructor.

Robbins will be home on leave in January to visit with his wife, who lives at 20045 St. Francis Street, and his mother, who makes her home at 26204 Deering. He will be released from the service in June.

Robbins is a 1952 graduate of Clarenceville High School and will be remembered for his activities on the football, basketball and baseball teams.

IT'S A BOY!

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Kennedy of Seattle, Washington, announce the arrival of a ten pound nine ounce son, Shane Francis, born November 14. He was greeted by two older brothers, Pat and Kris.

Mrs. Kennedy is the former Lois Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Bell of Grand River Avenue.

Thanksgiving at the Charles Pungors of Queensboro was shared with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Savina, and their four children. The Pungors returned to Grand Rapids Sunday night where Mr. Pungor teaches school.

We learn that Dr. Harold Stocker took ill very suddenly at a meeting last week, but the illness was of short duration, requiring only one night of hospitalization. We also hear that Dr. Stocker is celebrating his birthday this week. In addition to a family celebration, there will be a cake for the doctor at Joe George Steinberg's, who are having a gathering of some friends from Detroit.

The Ivy Gramets of Tareyton had a lot of excitement last week - but the kind they could do without. The furnace in their place of business - a haberdashery for men and boys - blew up. For several days they were busily engaged in a smoke sale. Mrs. Gramet reports, however, that things are rapidly getting straightened out.

Our column is short but we are recuperating yet from Thanksgiving. We were 17 in number at the dinner table and among the guests was Mary Lysauer of the New York Civic Opera Company, who had just completed an engagement in Detroit. We were, of course, delightfully entertained with songs by Mrs. Lysauer.

FILL FREEZER WITH STEWING HENS NOW, EXPERT ADVISES

Looking for some real good meat buys for stocking up your home freezer?

Don't overlook those stewing hens from your usual poultry supplier, encourages Henry E. Larzere, Michigan State College extension poultry economist.

Larzere says that some top-flight stewing hens are selling at a very reasonable price now. Just right for filling the freezer.

The price on stewing hens is better for the consumer now than it will be for several years to come, he comments.

Larzere says that high egg prices last year caused poultrymen to put in large laying flocks. With this year's price slide, many of the same growers are releasing their birds on the market.

OFFERS SUGGESTIONS FOR MAKING A TASTY SOUFFLE DISH

A souffle is simple to make and yet it is an impressive dish to serve, reports Mrs. Frieda Bennett, home demonstration agent. The word "souffle" means "puffing" - an excellent description of what happens when a souffle bakes. It rises in the oven as it bakes. She says to remember that a souffle is delicate and should be eaten immediately after it is done.

It is the air bubbles incorporated into the egg white that makes it expand and rise during baking so that the whole souffle expands right along with it. She adds this warning. Cold air contracts, so keep the oven door closed until the last five minutes - even if you are terribly curious.

When the souffle is done, it will have a golden brown, light crust. It will not shake when moved gently in the oven. A thin sharp knife should come out relatively clean with no coating, after it has been inserted into the souffle about halfway into the center. This test you use near the very end of baking - so the steam won't escape.

Don't let the souffle wait for the family or guests - serve it right away. You'll find recipes for different souffles in your favorite cook book.
