Clarenceville Optimists Selling Christmas Trees

The Clarenceville Optimists Club annual sale of Christmas trees began Wednesday, December 15, at a lot located in the Grand River - Eight Mile area.
Hours will be from 9:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. with the sale of trees to continue until December 23.
Funds from the project, as in past years, will be used to help defray the expenses of boys' and youth projects sponsored by the club in the community.
YULE POOR DECORATION
Want a novel Christmas decoration for your front door? Here is an idea from Michigan State College home economists. The little toy drum and drumsticks together with a big sawy bow and sprigs of greenery. Hang it on the door and loosely tuck the stick into the greens so your friends can "beat" their arrival.
Dip cooled cupcakes in corn syrup, then swirl in chopped nuts and shredded coconut. It's easy and good.
