Her veil was four-tiered and her flowers white roses, blue delphinium and baby's breath.

Her attendants wore blue and white flowered voile dresses and carried blue and white flowers arranged on white lace fans.

Bette Jo Wagner, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Terri Salvia, niece of the bride, Sue Hyvari, sister-in-law of the bride, Carlie Moore and Rosanne Brower. Alan Morgan was best man, and ushers were William Hudak, Tony Pazioli,

Mrs. Hawk, the former Mary Bewermitz, and Mrs. Wilkie, who was Lillian Schultz, had been close friends since high school days.

They exchanged vows in the home of Detroit minister William Buck.

"Back then we didn't go for big weddings," Mrs. Hawk said.

Both couples have two children, and both have farmed in the Canton area throughout their married lives.

The Hawks have a son, Marvin, of Plymouth, and a daughter, Mrs. Beverly Sharp of Waterford. There are four grandchildren.

The Wilkies' two daughters, Mrs. Robert Haver and Mrs. Fred Heidt, both live in the Plymouth area. They have six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.
