Foster Care Topic For Talk

The need of foster care for children in Oakland County and the procedures for offer-ing it will be discussed in special meeting in Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Church in Farmington Thursday, June 6.

June 6.

The Christian Service Commission at OLS is inviting all churches in the area to participate in the 8 p.m. meet-ticipate in the 8 p.m. meet-ing.

Two representatives of the social services division for Oakland-County will discuss what's involved in offering a temporary home to one of some 300 children between the ages of eight and 18. Letters about the informa-tive talks and discussion have been sent to area have been sent churches.

"The need is great for people who can open their homes for a little while to some of these young people," said Mrs. Donna Batchelor of the service group.

"We hope many will be in-terested in finding out how they can do so."
