ON RAINY DAYS

WINNER TENTH NATIONAL SAFETY POSTER CONTEST

Springtime rain is good for flowers but dangerous for drivers and pedestrians. Showers decrease visibility, make streets slippery and reduce the efficiency of brakes. Therefore, Automobile Club of Michigan urges drivers to "Be Extra Alert on Rainy Days."

A surprise house warming by friends and relatives on February 19 welcomed Mr. and Mrs. William H. Legg to their new home at 23483 Woodbine Trail. The Houshairs formerly made their home in the St. Mary's area in Detroit. They are the parents of three children: Carol, Christy and Billy. Carol is a kindergarten student at Middlebelt School.

A virus infection kept little Patty Hammond away from school and her third grade studies last week. Patty is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hammond, who live at 21109 Cora Street.

Illness struck twice at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Musselman, 27810 Ten Mile Road. Mrs. Bonnie Musselman is now in the Art Center Hospital recovering from a spinal operation while Mr. Musselman is recuperating from a case of pneumonia.

Mrs. Charles Langley of Shiawassee Road reports this week that her granddaughter, little Jenny Bailey, has the mumps. Jenny's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bailey, are former residents of Shiawassee.

House guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnston is Walter Brandon of Harbor Beach, Michigan.

The house at 21111 Cora Street has been a busy one this past week. Old residents moved out and new residents, Mr. and Mrs. John Glick, are busy getting unpacked. They bring with them a two year old son, Larry, from their old home in Detroit.

Mrs. Richard DeWalter has recovered sufficiently from a recent operation to return to her home at 23450 Springbrook Drive. She
