Big Job Done With $60 Investment

An investment of $60 recently netted the women of the Trinity Episcopal Church the sum of $601 a profit of over 1000%.

Based on the Christian principle of the Parable of the Talents, thirty women were each given $2 by the Women's Auxiliary to invest and increase in home plant projects. Some members made and sold cakes, bread, mayonnaise and men's ties; others took on agencies for cutlery and stationery. A bridge party and an ice cream social were also successful ventures.

Mrs. John Irwin, president of the Auxiliary, and Mrs. Harley Spiller, treasurer, extend thanks to everyone who contributed to this important work. Without the interest and cooperation of so many good friends in the Farmington area, the project could not have been the big success it was, they stated.

Anne Russell, Patrick Collins Speak Nuptial Vows At Evening Ceremony

Nuptial vows were exchanged by Anne Russell and Patrick Collins at a double ring ceremony performed Friday evening, February 11, at the Methodist Children's Village Chapel with Chaplain Lewis Compton officiating.

Mrs. Joseph J. Prisk, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Duties of best man were performed by Joseph J. Prisk.

A reception for the wedding party and guests was held at the Livonia Inn immediately following the church ceremony.

A honeymoon trip was taken by the newlyweds prior to the groom's return to duty at the Pudget Sound Naval Ship Yard at Bremerton, Washington, where he is now stationed. Bag a going-away press, Mrs. Collins chose a light blue wool suit with red accessories and a white orchid corsage.
