"Without a doubt we would beat Stevenson nine out of 10 times," said Frayer whose squad finished at 15-7. "I knew their pitcher Centers

It was Panzoff's fourth defeat in eight decisions. The junior righthander finished with an 0.57 earned run average, working 49 1/3 innings, giving up 32 hits, and striking out 64.

Centers' pitching time ran out in the top of the fourth and Goode called on reliever Don Finn who wound up working the final 3 2/3 innings, allowing four hits, and
