WILL JEWELRY MAKE DAD FATHER?

On June 17th, more than 65,000,000 fathers will know something is up.

The house will be unnaturally quiet; there may even be breakfast on a tray waiting beside Father's bed. The family car will miraculously be spanking clean. And the odor of a favorite pie will come wafting from the oven. Ah, yes ... It's Father's Day.

The importance of this has been underscored by a Presidential proclamation, but the entire family succeeds better than anyone else in are obviously for the father with fashion flair. Since just about everybody's father has found his own flair by now, don't be shy about gifting Dad's new image.

A ring can do that expertly; even a signet, birthstone or initial ring will sport a diamond for June 17th gifting. Submerged settings, black enamelling, semi-precious stones like lapis flattopped or checker-boarded are the exciting new styles for the modernman...Dad.

A watch is the kind of Father's telling Dad what a prince of a guy he is by the very special gifts they give him ... gifts that may come from a jewelry store.

Just for a start, the Jewelry Industry Council lists cuff links with matching tie tacs or the wider tie slide. These can be diamond-sparked, karat gold, sterling silver or colored with semi-precious stones for the sophisticated father who wears his French cuffs for those moments that demand distinction.

Then, for a more leisurely look (and Dad is more leisurely these days) dress him for the part with

Day gift that makes the occasion a family affair whether it's an elegant gold bracelet watch, a workaday automatic with its own brand of elegance, or a sports watch totalling up points for the family when Dad's at his favorite game.

HOME IS HIS CASTLE and silver is elegantly appropriate for that castle and the Dad within. A silver wine taster on a chain, wine bottle coaster, barbecue dish and carving set gift for the gourmet.

Cigarette boxes, letter opener and limited edition plates depicting everything from peace to the American Indian are particularly personal and uniquely special silver gifts. Dad's barkeeping is something else again with a silver ice bucket, cordial set, iced beverage tumbler, on-the-rocks cups.

A handsome pocket lighter, animal figures in crystal, porcelain or pewter, a digital clock for desk or den, and early Americana items that are especially timely as the nation's Bicentennial approaches are more beautiful jewelry gift buys for that beautiful guy you call Dad.

snap-on button cuff decorations, cuff links with interchangeable stones to match Dad's color scheme for the day, the tie tac that lets Dad proudly display the birthstones of his children.

PRACTICAL POP will appreciate pocket accessories -key chain, money clip, pen, initial belt buckle, monogrammed wallet. These items are classics, always in style and always ready to fill his need.

A style-changing watchband, symbolic pendants, gold and silver neck chains, a sporty belt buckle, a sterling bracelet with matching ring
