Mrs. Frazer Huitts 20450 HAGGERTY FARM, 1522-R1

Mr. and Mrs. James Lapham hosted 60 members of the West Farmington Farm Bureau at its annual picnic on the evening of July 19.

A cooperative supper was served on the lawn at the Lapham home, followed by a short business meeting. Chairman Harold P. Ott presided. In the absence of Secretary Dorothy Cox, the minutes and treasurer's report were read by Mrs. Iona Howard. Both found twenty members and their families present.

Mrs. Grace Rexin reported on the picnic of the Women's Committee of the Oakland and Macomb County Farm Bureau organizations. Mr. Harry McCracken spoke of the roads and water situation coming up before the Township Board.

A letter from the Polio Center was read. It thanked the group for the money given them and stated that it had been placed in the emergency fund.

Wallace Williams conducted the discussion on "Doing a Good Job in Junior Farm Bureau Recruitment." Conclusions were that members of this group would send 15 names of non-members. At present only four eligible families are not members, and the section is rapidly going suburban.

A social period followed the adjournment of the meeting. Mr. and Mrs. John Irwin and children, Nancy and Susan, left guests for a week's vacation at the Walter Gardner cabin on Lake Michigan.

Sharon Hansen and Mary Hults of Haggerty Road and Marcia

Morehead of Eight Mile Road left Sunday to spend two weeks at Scout Camp Norrin, near Ortonville.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lapham spent the week end with friends at Lexington, Ontario.
