Special services will be held from October 4 to October 10 at the Forest Hills United Methodist Church, one-quarter mile east of Orchard Lake Road on Twelve Mile Road. Guest speaker will be Rev. K. Roy Johnson, Evangelist from Spencerville, Ohio. Special music will be provided by Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Keller, heads of the music department at Dakota Avenue United Methodist Church in Detroit.

The services will be held at 7:30 p.m. each evening except Monday. Church School will be at 9:45 a.m. and Worship service at 11:00 a.m. Reverend Shure is pastor of the church.

Last week Springland Subdivision was a busy place with the first department making three calls to put out grass fires. One occurred on Monday and the other two on Wednesday.

Wednesday evening, September 21, twenty-two members of the Springland Friendship Club met at the home of Mrs. Ralph Martin on Springland Drive. After an enjoyable evening of cards, the hostess served refreshments. A business meeting followed, presided over by the president, Mrs. Thomas McDonough.

It was suggested and agreed that a flower fund be set up for members that become ill. The group was in favor of having a secret pal for the coming year. Cards on special dates. Names will be drawn at the next meeting, October 12, at the home of Mrs. Joseph Simons on Springland Drive.

It was brought to the attention of the ladies that a cooperative nursery school is being organized in this area under the guidance and direction of the Wayne-Oakland County Cooperative Nursery School Council. Three and four year old children will be supervised by a licensed teacher and one or two "mother assistants."

Although definite plans concerning the location of the school and selection of the teacher are not

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Seike and son Ronnie arrived by plane from Fairfax, California, for a two week visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Coryell of Orchard Lake Road. Mr. Ralph Coryell, Jr., from Cincinnati, Ohio, is also visiting the family this week.

Garden Lecturer To Speak Here

Alice Wessels Burlingame, dirt gardener and lecturer, will speak at a meeting sponsored by the Farmington Garden Club at the Farmington Baptist Church on Monday, October 3, at 1 p.m.

Presented by The J. L. Hudson Company, Mrs. Burlingame's topic will be "House Plants For Effective Accents," an informal discussion covering the propagation of all kinds of house plants. She will also include discussion of interesting new trends in the care and culture of plants in order to produce more beauty and decorative value in the home. Plants, containers, books and other materials are used as a display to illustrate highlights in the program.

Members of the local garden club are inviting guests to the meeting. Mrs. John McCormick is chairman of the hostess committee. She will be assisted by Mrs. Clarence Bickling, Mrs. Guy Duran, Mrs. Fred Harrison, Mrs. Richard Hug, Mrs. P. H. Parker, Mrs. Robert Potter, Mrs. James Read and Mrs. Gordon Walper.
