

Whites Married In Garden

Dianne Marie Deering and Paul Douglas White exchanged marriage vows in a recent ceremony under an arbor in the garden of the bride's home.

MR. AND MRS. PAUL DOUGLAS WHITE
(Dianne Marie Deering)

The Rev. Robert Kerr officiated, and the bride's father gave her in marriage.

The bride wore a white gown with long full sleeves and a Peter Pan collar. Her veil was shoulder-length and she carried 12 white sweet-heart roses with blue star-flowers and baby's breath in a tiny bouquet.

Patricia Deering, the bride's sister, wore a blue-and-white checked gingham gown for her duties as maid of honor. Bridesmaid Deborah Harvey of Farmington wore red and white checked gingham. Both carried small baskets of red, white and blue daisies.

The bridegroom asked his father, Alva M. White, to be best man.

For the ceremony and reception in the bride's home, Mrs. Deering selected a long brown and white pleated gown and Mrs. White wore powder blue.

The newlyweds, both students at Eastern Michigan University, are living in Farmington. The new Mrs. White is employed by Farmington Travel Service and her husband is self-employed as a cement contractor.

MRS. STEPHEN LANDES
(Cornelia Schorr)

Stephen Landes Weds In Livonia

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Landes are living in Ann Arbor, Mich., the matron of honor, following a honeymoon in the east.

They were married May 12, in Holy Cross Evangelical Lutheran Church, Livonia. Miriam Belleville of the faculty of Alma College was the organist.

The bride is the former Cornelia Ruth Schorr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Schorr of Livonia. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lee E. Landes of Norwich Road, Livonia.

The bride's gown was of ivory Belgian net and peach dangle lace over ivory satin with a cap and veil of matching tulle and lace.

Her attendants, Mrs. Thomas Warth of DelWitte, and Mrs. Jerry Smith of Ann Arbor, wore gowns of peach satin and ivory lace.

A reception was held in the Village Women's Club in Bloomfield Hills. The bride is a graduate of Alma and is currently enrolled in the graduate school of music at Eastern Michigan University. The bridegroom is a graduate of the University of Michigan.

The Rev. Dean Klump officiated and the bride was given in marriage by her father.

Susan Bell, the bridegroom's sister, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Diane Palmer, Debbie Moore and Polly Bell, all of Plymouth.

Scott Hall of Westland was best man, and Gary Wyman, the bride's brother, John Kelley and Melvin Moore of Plymouth were the ushers.

The bride's mother wore a rose pink gown and the bridegroom's mother wore an aqua ensemble.

A reception for 150 guests was held in the VFW Hall.

MACLD Offers Gym Program

A special gym and swim program will be offered July 9-Aug. 10 by the Livonia-Redford Chapter of the Michigan Association for Children with Learning Disabilities.

Applications will be accepted until Monday, June 18, by Mrs. Gerald Trimark, 27381 MacArthur Redford Township.

The gym program will be for children between the ages of four and 16. Director James Glasgow will concentrate on a program designed to help provide perceptual motor training for children with learning disabilities.

According to the association children who seem slow in class, uninterested, lazy, immature, cry easily, have short attention spans, can't sit still, seem clumsy, can't get along with other children and have poor handwriting may have learning disabilities.

At the association's last meeting, held in cooperation with the Livonia public schools Community Education Dept., Dr. George Bahrall spoke on the relationship between perceptual motor training and academic achievement.
