

BEAT THE HEAT! *

Crisp, crunchy lettuce, juicy, ripe tomatoes, and a delicate, interesting salad dressing are all refreshing "heat beaters." And that's what your hometown newspaper's FOCUS: Suburbia section turns to this coming weekend, June 23. Nobody likes to spend much time in the kitchen when the mercury heads for the 90 degree mark, so we thought we'd serve up some interesting menu ideas that will make life more fun for the family chef. Don't miss "SALAD DAYS" when it's tossed on your doorstep by your Observer Carrier this weekend!

WEEKEND FEATURE SUPPLEMENT/OBSERVER NEWSPAPERS

TOMATOES STUFFED WITH SOUR CREAM
Serves 4-6 (Depending on the size of tomatoes used.) 4 medium sized tomatoes
or four large sized tomatoes, cut in half
2 1/2 cup chopped cucumbers, well-drained
3 tablespoons chopped green onion
salt and pepper to taste
1 cup sour cream
Peel the tomatoes, if easy peeling, pour boiling water over tomatoes, let stand a few seconds, pour off boiling water and cover with cold water. Cut out over the skin will peel off easily. Scoop out center, invert and chill. Mix filling, put in center of tomatoes, and chill again. Serve on lettuce bed. Filling may be stretched by adding more cucumbers.
