

For Deck Picnic

Fix-Aheads Are Lifesavers

Some of the best summer times are those unplanned boat-hopping parties that just seem to happen at dockside. If you're elected, by popular demand, as hostess on the spot, ride the crest of the wave with easy to fix hors d'oeuvres. These appetizing ideas will help you make the most of the convenience and taste qualities of cheese, dairy sour cream and butter. Plan your happening by keeping an assortment of popular cheeses on hand. With a moment's notice, you can deck a tray with slices of golden cheddar, chunks of nutty Swiss, wedges of sharp and salty blue, mild brick and Edam.

While guests are nibbling, fill a bowl with make-ahead Dockside Dip, a mixture of shredded cheddar, crumbled blue and cream cheeses blended with onion, port wine, chopped walnuts and parsley. The dip will keep for several days in the refrigerator.

Guests with hearty appetites will appreciate the galley grilled party sandwiches that can be made ahead then grilled in a skillet at serving time.

For munchers, cocktail popcorn makes a flavorful snack. Use packaged pre-popped corn and drizzle it with garlic butter or chili powder butter.
