Dick Grant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Grant of Farmington Road, was inducted into the U. S. Marines on Thursday. He enlisted for three years.

A farewell party was held at the Stanley Chavey residence on Mayfield Avenue Wednesday evening. A large group of relatives and friends were in attendance.

Relatives were present at a dinner party honoring the seventh birthday of Hannah Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson of Clarita Avenue, last Wednesday evening.

As the young lady lighted the candles and blew them out, then she and served the beautiful birthday cake, a record was made to record all comments expressed by the assembled group. This proceeding provided much amusement for the latter part of the evening. Little Miss Hannah was presented with a number of lovely gifts.

At the family residence on Shady-side Avenue Sunday, January 8, a belated Christmas dinner party was held by Mrs. Mildred Schult. Mrs. Schult was visiting in Colorado on December 25. The majority of her children and grandchildren were guests. Plates were laid for twelve.

Sunday, January 8, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Coney of Mayfield Avenue were the latter's parents from Flat Rock.

Vyrl Bohlinger and his mother, Mrs. Bohlinger, from Loon Lake, were Sunday, January 8, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Roberts of Mayfield Avenue. Another visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roberts was their eldest daughter, Mrs. Edward Koshanek and her family from Inkster. Mrs. Koshanek, who is the former Clara Roberts, well-known for her ability as a soloist, has been practicing a part assigned her in the Minstrel Show to be presented by the Farmington Jaycees in February.

Clinton Ault of Mayfield Avenue was host to a big party Tuesday evening. Men from his circle of relatives in the community came in to view television and have a

Edgewood P.T.A. Elects Officers

The Edgewood P. T. A. of the Clarenceville School District was recently formed and officers were elected. Mrs. Goddard, director of District 7 of the Congress of Parents and Teachers, was in attendance.

Officers chosen were: Mrs. W. E. Stetson, mother vice-president; Robert Harbourn, father vice-president; Mr. LaBarge, teacher vice-president; Mrs. Joan English, secretary; Harold Aldrich, treasurer; Mrs. Ila Aldrich, historian and publicity chairman; and Mrs. Eva Lawason, hospitality and refreshments.

Guest speaker at the last meeting of the group was Dr. Paul Thams, director of special education in Oakland County. He discussed the progress being made in specialized training in the county as it affects children in the schools.

First Baptist Church Plans Conference

The First Baptist Church of Farmington, in cooperation with Conservative Baptist churches in the Greater Detroit area, will bring to Farmington its second annual missions conference, January 25 through January 29, at 7:30 nightly except Saturday.

Representing missions from various quarters of the world and the work of church building in the United States, the conference promises to be especially enlightening. Speakers will be as follows: Wednesday, January 25, Rev. Paul Okken from the Belgian Congo; Thursday, Rev. R. Tillotson from Brazil; Friday, Rev. William Duncan from Japan; and Sunday evening, January 29, Dr. Raymond Buker, foreign secretary for the Conservative Baptist Foreign missions society.

Dr. Buker has just returned from his world tour, visiting many fields of the society on practically every continent, and brings with his vital first-hand information. Paul Okken, who comes as the first speaker, is accredited as being one of the most dynamic mission speakers in our day.

Appearing in conjunction with the foreign missions program will be Rev. Harold Dungle, who contemplates starting work among
