Main Line to Monte Carlo...

PRINCESS KELLY

Academy-award winning Grace Kelly, glamorous star of the silver screen, is engaged to Prince Rainier, ruler of Monaco and Europe's most eligible royal bachelor.

What will her life be like in Monaco, glittering Gilbert and Sullivan principality on the Mediterranean? About one-fifth the size of Detroit's Belle Isle Park, this fabulously wealthy playground on the Riviera needs an heir to protect its sovereignty and save its citizens from paying French income taxes.

Will the Philadelphia Mainline actress daughter of an Irish bricklayer be happy as the royal consort of the ruler of Monaco's few thousand subjects when now she can count millions of movie-going audiences as her fans?

As Her Serene Highness, the Princess of Monaco, what kind of life will she lead in the tiny state famed for its Monte Carlo gambling casino, its 24 soldier army with only one private, its world-renowned ballet company?

Do intimate observers think this marriage will work—or will Prince Rainier's romantic attachments of the past cloud her happiness? Now, in an intimate and exclusive series, the Detroit Free Press reveals the story about Grace, her prince-charming, her family and friends, her career in Hollywood, and how she won the heart of Rainier. You won't want to miss a single installment!

Falcons Stage Fourth Quarter Rally To Down Waterford Cagers 47-42

The Farmington Falcons staged a brilliant comeback Friday night in downing the Skippers of Waterford 47-42.

Trailing by 10 points, 37-27, in the final quarter, the Falcon five put on an excellent comeback to win in the final minutes.

With three minutes remaining, Robinson sunk a basket for Farmington that finally put them ahead 42-41.

Waterford took a 12-8 lead in the first quarter. Gillis of Waterford paced the game with four baskets for the Skippers.

At halftime the Skippers maintained their commanding lead by taking a 21-25 edge over the Farmington cagers. Jones dropped in four more points for the Falcons and Gillis, the big gun for Waterford, sank 10 points.

The Skippers did not let up in the third period and continued to pour it on. With smooth-working plays, Waterford increased the lead as Gillis dropped in seven more tallies.

In the fourth and final period, however, it was all Farmington. The team began to put the ball through the net consistently and proceeded to rack up a total of 20 points. Nearly all the Falcons had a hand in the final game-winning surge as Robinson dropped in six; Nichols, four; Jones, two; McDonald, two; and Flick, two.

In addition to the fourth quarter scoring spree, the Falcons set up a fine defensive block that kept the Skippers' total down to a mere five points.

Jones led the Falcons for the evening with a total of 16 points. He was followed by Robinson with 12, McDonald with 10, Nichols with 7 and Flick with 2.

Gillis paced the Waterford club with 24 tallies. Kruskie dropped in 10 points for the Skippers.

This Friday the Falcons will play host to the Lincoln High Aces from Van Dyke in another league contest.

Clarenceville School News

Varsity Club Plans Projects

Clarenceville's Varsity Club met Thursday, January 12, with plans being made to raise funds with which to buy a "whirlpool" to be used for athletic injuries. A dinner will be held to help raise funds for the machine.

The club also discussed plans for getting a football plaque, honoring this year's team.

After discussions of the fund-raising dinner and football plaque, the boys made arrangements for a ski they will present at the next pep assembly.

At the next home game, the Varsity Club will sell basketball programs. The programs will consist of four pages which will contain the following: teams' standing for the year (so far), line-up of the varsity and junior varsity, the remaining games, and the school's record for this year up to now.

In the program will be a story of two basketball players, one taken from each school's team, Clarenceville's and Farmington's.

This idea is being used to arouse interest in help sell more basketball programs to raise funds for the Varsity Club's activities.

CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGES MADE BY G. A. A. CLUB

Constitutional changes were on the agenda of the Monday G. A. A. meeting January 9. Donna Hamford, president, presided over the open discussion regarding the eligibility of tournament players. An amendment was formulated and passed in accordance with the club's constitution.

With approximately twenty girls applying for club membership, an initiation committee was set up. The initiation program will begin on Wednesday, January 18, and the formal initiation, with a tea, will occur the following day.

Mathematics Tests Given Eighth Graders

Evaluative mathematics tests were given to all the eighth grade sections last Tuesday and Wednesday, January 10 and 11, at Clarenceville High School.

Mathematics instructors Mrs. Potts and Mr. Fallon gave the exams.

Mrs. Laves, testing director, supervised.

Farmington J.V.'s Edge Waterford In Farmington

The Farmington J.V.'s won a thriller Friday night from a classy Waterford team by a slim 32-30 margin.

The first quarter saw very little scoring with Waterford grabbing an early 10-3 lead. In the second quarter Farmington began to fight back and climbed to within four points of the Skippers, 14-10, by the end of the first half.

In the third quarter, Farmington, led by Dave Catherman, came roaring back and staged a brilliant rally to take the lead, 28-23.

Waterford, in turn, tried to make a final comeback, but was unable to overcome Farmington's lead before time ran out. Dave Byrne sank the pinning basket for the Falcons.

Scorers for Farmington were: Catherman, 13; Fulton, 7; Byrne, 6; Nichols, 2; and Brewbaker, 2.

Trojans Edge Out Clarkston 66-64

Excitement reigned at the Clarenceville-Clarkston game Friday night with the Trojans edging out their opponents 66-64 in Clarkston's hardwood.

Clarenceville was in second place in the league with only Milford standing in their way to the top. Next week's battle with Milford should tell the story.

Clarenceville took an early lead and, shifting from a man-to-man to a zone defense after the first quarter, managed to stay ahead by a slim margin throughout most of the game.

Jim Jones scored the winning tally when he drove from left court through a center opening and put in a push shot.

The Clarenceville team was strong throughout most of the game, but so was the Clarkston quintet and they kept the score nip-and-tuck.

Helping push the Trojans to victory was Darrel Hidding, who scored a brilliant 38 of the 64 points earned by the team.

Farmington G. A. A. Begins Basketball Play

The Farmington G. A. A. basketball season got under way this week after ten weeks of volleyball. The last volleyball games of the season were close ones. Three out of the four games were either tied or won by one point.

Arlene Ford racked up 11 points for her team, against Andrews, making the score a close 37-36.

The end of the season found the Kinsman team in first place, Andrews and Chapman tied for second, followed by the Ford, Leach, Han, The Leach and Hanson teams and the Ports teams, all tied.
