PLAN CARD PARTY TO CLIMAX C'VILLE POLIO FUND DRIVE

Clarencville will climax its 1956 March of Dimes Drive with a special card party. Mrs. Nicholas Ianni, Clarencville chairman, reported this week.

Proceeds from the party will go to aid polio victims and aid in research so that "Polio will be licked." Mrs. Marge Schukins will be hostess at her home at 2110 Middlebelt Road.

A donation of a "white elephant" and 50 cents will be asked from each lady. The white elephants will be used to raise money. Everyone is invited to attend and enjoy an evening of games and refreshments. Persons planning to attend are asked to call Mrs. Schukins at GR. 4-0309.

William Daines Weds Nancy Dorsey In Candlelight Ceremony December 30

White roses and mums in a cascade arrangement added a background of red and white poinsettias formed a beautiful setting for the candlelight wedding ceremony uniting Nancy Carolyn Dorsey of Dearborn to Dr. William Frederick Daines of Farmington.

The double ring ceremony was performed on December 30 at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon at the Littlefield Boulevard Presbyterian Church in Dearborn with Dr. Samuel C. Weir officiating.

The bride was given in marriage by Stephen T. Kraft, a close friend of the family. She is the daughter of Mrs. Raymond Glenn Dorsey of Hartwell Avenue and the late Mr. Dorsey.

Matron of honor for the wedding was Mrs. John Griffith Daines of Ann Arbor. Martha Prany of St. Louis, Missouri, was bridesmaid. Best man was Dr. James Reese of Ann Arbor and ushers were John Griffith Daines of Ann Arbor, Peter James Snyder of Hubbard, Ohio, and George Durham Kraft of Detroit.

The bride wore a gown of candlelight satin with a bodice accented with tucked illusion and a sweeping cathedral train. A full length veil was of Mantilla style, trimmed with Venetian lace. Her jewelry consisted of a strand of cultured pearls, a gift from the groom. The bridal bouquet was composed of stephanotis, white orchids and ivy.

Identically-styled gowns of crystalline tulle with fitted basque bodices and halter necklines, featuring deeper shades in back panels and bows, were worn by the matron of honor and the bridesmaid. Mrs. Daines wore pink and carried sweetheart roses. As bridesmaid, Mrs. Prany wore blue and carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother chose a silver gray tulle dress and a pale pink hat band in silver. Mrs. Daines' gown was of rose crepe with matching accessories. Both mothers wore orchid corsages.

A reception was held in the church parlor following the wedding, after which the couple left.

for a honeymoon in Williamsburg, Virginia. The bride chose a red sheer wool suit and black accessories for her going-away costume. The bride is a graduate of the University of Michigan with a master's degree. She is a member of Delta Delta Delta and Sigma Delta. She attended the Sorbonne and L'Alliance Francaise in Paris. Dr. Daines graduated from the University of Michigan School of Dentistry. He is affiliated with the Psi Omega dental fraternity. He served with the First Marine Division in Korea in the Dental Corps and in San Diego, California. Bridal showers were held by Mrs. Maynard Snodgrass of Briarcliff Road, Detroit, and Mrs. Frederick Hartman of Birmingham prior to the wedding.

Keep an eye on the canned food shelf this month. You'll find excellent values in canned tuna fish. Add a can of tuna fish to a can of condensed mushroom soup. Spread the mixture on slices of bread, and grill in the oven until golden brown. Add a slice of American cheese to top off this hearty grill to tuna mushroom sandwich.

Add Eight More Mothers' March Captains To List

A report this week disclosed that eight more "Marching Mothers" captains have been named to lead volunteer workers throughout Farmington Township during the 1956 March of Dimes Drive.

Mrs. D. J. Simon, assistant Mothers' March chairman, stated that the new captains are in addition to the twenty-seven named earlier. Additional Mothers' March captains are: Mrs. E. McAdams, Mrs. H. Madigan, Mrs. Carl Leifer, Mrs. D. Woods, Mrs. W. Fox, Mrs. Elta Vanderburgh, Miss Cora Billings and Mrs. Louis Dorris.

The objective of the drive is to raise funds needed for polio research and professional education as well as patient care and rehabilitation.

A record number of volunteers will fan out into every part of the Township in search of contributions to aid polio patients born too soon to benefit from the Salk vaccine.

"Thousands of men, women and children, some of them our own neighbors, are still suffering from the cruel aftermath of polio," Mrs. Hazel Stevens, Southwest Oakland County Director, said. "Only a successful March of Dimes will enable us to meet their needs." Three of the Farmington area residents who benefitted from the 1955 March of Dimes were Mrs. Betty Jane Wagner, 34670 Hadow, age 25; Clayton Mincey, 22704 Colgate, age 23; and baby Nicholas Ianni, 20773 Hugo.

Pork prices are expected to go even lower in January. With large supplies of pork, shoppers will find a wide variety of cuts to choose from. You'll get more meat from your shopping dollar if you choose pork.

A helicopter, carrying 19 passengers, crashed in a 100-mile area and having a range of more than 300 miles is in the cars for 1958.

The new officers and the outgoing officers were presented with corsages. The following chairman will assist the officers: membership Mary Opel; flowers, Kathleen Grimm; altar, Emma Roberts; and Circle, Emma DePatty. Following the business meeting, games were played. Edna Finzel, Grace Lovelade and Kathleen Grimm won prizes. Refreshments were served under the chairmanship of Marie Richards. She was assisted by Augusta Rawland, Evelyn Roberts, Emma Roberts, Leona Rock and Gertrude Wilto.

Clarencville Mothers' March Captains Named

Seven prominent women volunteers this week were named district captains for Clarencville's 1956 March of Dimes plans for the annual fund raising appeal take final shape.

The appointments were announced by Mrs. Nicholas Ianni, Clarencville chairman. They are: Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Yockey, Mrs. Warren, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Lyman, Mrs. VanZant, Mrs. Findlay and Mrs. Nye, who will be in charge of the business section.

Mrs. Stevenson is Clarencville co-chairman, assisting Mrs. Ianni. Pointing out that polio isn't licked yet, the March chairman said that here are thousands of men, women and children in braces and iron lungs who will need help for years to come.

Mexican Girls Conclude Visit

Three Spanish students, here as guests of Farmington area residents and attending classes at Farmington High School, will soon return to their homes in Mexico City.

The three Mexican girls, who have been here for approximately six weeks to learn more about the customs of people in the United States and our educational system, two Farmington girls, Virginia Nelson and Diane Franja, were guests of families in Mexico City for a similar period of time this summer on the exchange program.

Here on the exchange program from Mexico City are Marie Briseno, Carmen Rodriguez and Marcela del Pozo. Maria has been a guest of the Lloyd Nelson family. Carmen a guest of the Dr. Marion Franja family, and Marcela a guest of the Don Larsons. All speak very highly of the way of life here and indicated that they have enjoyed their stays very much.

While here the Mexican girls have attended classes at Farmington High School and have attended numerous other activities of both a cultural and entertaining nature. Though class attendance at the school has not been required, the girls have attended classes regularly. They have shown a keen interest in the education program, although class credits are not awarded on the exchange program.

Farmington is reported to be the only school in this area carrying on an exchange program with Mexican students. In charge of the student exchange is Dr. G. A. Palma, director, from Mexico City. Plans are now being made for an exchange of six students from the two countries next year.

Grace Lutheran Ladies Guild Elects Officers

The Ladies Guild of Grace Church met in the church basement on Thursday evening, January 12. Pastor Victor Halbohn installed the new officers for the year as follows: Eva Sanko, president; Violet Doney, secretary; Margaret Melz, treasurer; Dorothy Kirsch, vice-president.

Margaret Melz was the outgoing president. The new officers and the outgoing officers were presented with corsages.

The following chairman will assist the officers: membership Mary Opel; flowers, Kathleen Grimm; altar, Emma Roberts; and Circle, Emma DePatty.

Following the business meeting, games were played. Edna Finzel, Grace Lovelade and Kathleen Grimm won prizes. Refreshments were served under the chairmanship of Marie Richards. She was assisted by Augusta Rawland, Evelyn Roberts, Emma Roberts, Leona Rock and Gertrude Wilto.
