

Rambling Eastward T'ween 9 & 10 Mile

"Serving the Area Between Nine and Ten Mile
From Truck to Inkster Road"

MRS. RAY MATSEN

GR. 4-6968

Mrs. Lipke of Canfield Street has been busy in this area for the past few weeks getting signatures on petitions for improved water service.

Mrs. D' Simons' mother, Mrs. Dunn, is now here for a visit from Bancroft, Canada. Mrs. Dunn who is 74 years old, broke her leg last summer but is now walking about again.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Musselman and son, Dennis, of Ten Mile Road spent Sunday visiting in Holly, Michigan.

Firemen were called to the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Lareford of Stockton Street last Saturday morning. They were able to confine a furnace fire to the basement but the furnace was damaged beyond repair.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Harrison and sons, Michael and Danny, spent the week end at the cabin of Mr. and Mrs. A. Benson and their two children, Judy and Joe, at Mio, Michigan. Ice skating and tobogganing were enjoyed.

Mrs. Stella McKerracher's twin sister, Mrs. Thelma Bennett, underwent a heart operation last week. She is now recovering.

Cookie Thornton had as her guest Friday night and Saturday her girl friend, Sandy Matsen.

Twelve 111 Scout Troop 177 of this area has taken on as a project the making of five pinafore dresses and five pairs of shorts pants for four year old refugees in the Near East. They met last Saturday at the home of Mrs. D. Allen on Eleven Mile Road to sew with Mrs. Bassett and Mrs. Marsh supervising. "Noise bag" lunches and hot cocoa were served.

Drifting About In The Subs

By MRS. HOWARD LEGG

"Illness" is no new word to our readers, for we have broked around in the "Subs" we found a large number of families confined with one disease or another. Among those reported on the sick list are:

Little Susan Holland of Cora Street is battling with a case of the mumps.

Recovering satisfactorily at her home on Fink Road following a recent operation is Mrs. Jessie Roggenbusch.

Karyn Nicholson was unable to attend school last week because of illness. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Nicholson of Springbrook Drive.

Jimmy Kendrick is resting at his home on Springbrook Drive following an attack of appendicitis.

Classmates Marilyn St. James and Lind Hickey are suffering the miseries of chicken pox. They are both Hollywood Subdivision youngsters.

Both of the young daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Morley Goffe of the Woodbine Subdivision are on the sick list.

Sunday evening dinner guests at the John Betson home on Springbrook Drive included Mr. and Mrs. Joe Blackhurst, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Blackhurst. Mr. Blackhurst celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary, the latter part of December. They will sail on February 9 for their home in London, England following a six-month visit with relatives and friends in the United States.

Congratulations are being received by Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hagemston of Haynes Street on the birth of a daughter, Sharon Ann.

SPECIAL PROJECTS NET POLO MONEY IN CLARENCEVILLE

Mrs. Nicholas Janni, March of Dimes chairman for Clarenceville, announced that all mothers are ready to march against polo on Thursday from 7 to 9 p.m.

Two successful March of Dimes special events were held in Clarenceville in addition to the Blue Crutch "Boy" project, Mrs. Janni reported.

"A Snop Party" was attended by 37 members of the Westbrook Mothers Club. Mrs. Ruth Fox was hostess for the party held on January 11. All proceeds were presented to the March of Dimes Fund.

A "Polo" breakfast was held by Mrs. Fran Gildroy at her home on Orchard Lake Road on January 17, and all proceeds were turned over to the March of Dimes. Clarenceville will climax its drive with a card party at the home of Mrs. Margie Schukins on January 31.

The congregation is now meeting in the V. F. W. Hall at 25245 W. Seven Mile Road at Five Points, while the church building is being completed on Seven Mile near Middlebelt.

TOWNLINE NEWS

Mrs. Frazer Hults

28450 HAGGERTY GR. 4-1879

The January meeting of the West Farmington Farm Bureau was held on Tuesday evening, January 17, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Howard on Halsted Road. Twenty-two members and a visitor attended the meeting.

Mary Green led group singing, followed by the reading of the Farm Bureau Creed by Chairman James Inman.

A silver star award, won by the group for an outstanding meeting in October, was shown. A letter was read from UNESCO stating that the donation sent in by the local Farm Bureau had been used to buy school books for children in Korea.

Mrs. Grace Rexie, women's delegate, then gave reports on County and State Institute meetings she had attended in Lansing. A national game was played, led by Richard Helker.

The meeting was then turned over to Wendell Eric, who led a discussion on the topic "Farmer Looks at the Guaranteed Annual Wage."

New members were accepted into the group prior to adjournment.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hill of East Detroit were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Royd McCormick on Friday evening. On Sunday the McCormicks entertained Mr. and Mrs. Jack Eby and Mr. and Mrs. Louis King of Novi at a dinner.

A belated Christmas dinner was held Sunday at the Frazer Hults home. This was due to the illness of both Mr. and Mrs. Hults at Christmas time. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Taylor and Miss Sadie Hopkins of Pontiac and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson of Wixom.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hill and Mrs. Norris Hill spent Sunday in East Detroit as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hill.

Mrs. Florence Bingham entertained.

The Rebekahs sponsored a bake sale and home made doughnut sale at the I. O. O. F. Hall last Saturday. All proceeds were turned over to the March of Dimes. The sale was termed a huge success. Over 30 dozen doughnuts were sold and a profit of approximately $175.00 was realized.

A fire broke out in a partially completed home on LeBost Drive in Willowbrook Subdivision recently. The fire was caused by salamanders left burning overnight to dry out newly plastered walls. The new $21,000 Novi fire truck was used for the first time in answering the call. Extent of damage has not been determined.

The Novi police were called out on three accidents this past week. Snow and icy roads were listed as the primary cause for all three accidents. Michael Brennan, a student on his way home from Michigan State College, was seriously injured when his car skidded and rolled over. He was taken to Sessions Hospital in critical condition with broken ribs and internal injuries.

Solomon Bernstein of Woodhaven, New York, was injured when his car went into a skid and struck another car driven by Ethel Hine of Charlotte at Two Mile and Grand River. After striking the Hine car, he crashed into a telephone pole, snapped it off, and then rolled over.

A car driven by Roy Lakosky of Livonia was also involved in an accident with an auto in Novi driven by Roy Chambers of Indian River. Fortunately, no one was injured.

Howard Miller was a business caller in Pontiac on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ciscerella and Mr. and Mrs. William Hansen, Sr., were visiting with relatives in Ypsanti, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tuck of Novi are the proud parents of a new baby girl born on January 20.

Peeking through the window can be fun except when its the little window in the envelope from some store's billing department.

Mrs. Mildred Hunt, Mrs. James Smart, Mrs. Clyde Wyatt, Mrs. Otto Rexie and Mrs. Florence Bingham were in Pontiac on Monday evening. They assisted the Oakland County Farm Bureau Women's Committee in serving at a soil conservation banquet.
