The Teen Touch

accents the smooth look!

"TEEN-PROPORTIONED BOBBIES" Coke date . . . from date . . . a stroll through the park. You're prettier than ever when your smooth look starts with Bobbies. For Bobbies have the teen touch you just can't get in bras and girdles designed for older figures. Bras may fit in the cup, but they're loose across the back . . . go in an unflattering way under the arms. And "grow-up" girdles are loose at the waist and won't fit smoothly over the hips. Insist on your very own figure makers. Come in, let us fit you in Bobbies . . . Bras, Briches and Girdles, today!

Bobbie Bra No. 441, snow-fresh cotton broadcloth, 30A to 38B $1.20

Bobbie Briches No. 819, freedom-loving elastic net with delicate border of lace. Also available at Circle No. 919, $3.95

Jim and Ruth Cocks of Loch near announce the arrival of a new daughter. The Glucks of Tareyton have a new son.

We are in receipt of the details of the Detroit News Bird House Contest. A poster may be seen at the Eagle School and information will be available at the Eagle School Boy Scout meetings.

A surprise birthday party was held for Mrs. Stanley Florence at her home on Briarcrest Knoll of Saturday, January 14, by her daughter, Mrs. C. A. Simon. About 35 friends and relatives attended. Mrs. Florence's mother from Ewart, Michigan, was on hand for the celebration.

Carolyn and Clark Price set up a bow and arrow range in their basement this past week and are learning how to be crack bowmen at their Queensboro home.

A square dance will be held at the Eagle School on Friday, Feb. 3, from 8:30 to 10:30 p.m. Norm Scay of Woodstock Farms will call the sets and music will be provided by his records. All from the area are welcome. It is hoped that this will be the first of many to come. There will be no admission charge. For further information call Mrs. Robert Irvin at MA. 6-1539.

Bill Muirhead made a visit to his fishing shanty on Middle Straits Lake this week and found a family of nine muskrats had set up housekeeping in it. Built a house with in a house.

BLOOD BANK

The Bond - Eagle Blood Center will hold a blood bank on February 20 at the West Bloomfield Town Hall from 1:15 to 7:15 p.m. Each person who donated to the bank will be eligible to take blood from the bank if they should need it. Residents may donate anywhere, officials stated, but are asked to specify that the blood is for the Eagle Blood Bank.

Help is needed for the program. Persons are needed to help with registration, providing transportation, helping at the center and caring for children while parents donate. Officials commented that anyone available for any of these jobs is asked to contact June Inman at MA. 6-2412.

Earl Williams donated the first piece of equipment for the newly formed Scout Troop at Eagle School. Hope for knotty-tying was given by this Cambourne Place resident.

Ty Place, an old-timer of this area, visited the neighbors this week to see how the fishing was and how we were wintering.

Milton Lichterman of Briarcrest Avenue returned this week from a trip into Indiana where he visited friends.

The Knolls was saddened this week by the passing of a sincere friend, Norm Nunn of Briarcrest. Norm was stricken suddenly at night and passed away quickly.

He was associated with the Minnesota Mining and Mfg. Co. and lived in the Knolls about two years.

Norm served on the nominating committee for the last Franklin Knolls Association election.

Mr. Nunn was 42, a member of Twin Beach Country Club. Services were held in Farmington Saturday with burial in Toledo.

Norm leaves his wife, Fern, and a son, Allen.

Monday, February 6, is klickoff day for the annual Girl Scout cookie sale and Girl Scouts from this area will be calling at your door. Orders for cookies will be taken to help Girl Scouting projects.

The Goodroes of Elm Grove Street busy of late. Mr. Leo Goodroe bought the Texaco gas station at Grand River and Middlefield Road from John Harmon and took over on January 18. The station is now known as Leo's Texaco Service. Road service has been added as a service to motorists by the station management.

A son, Joseph Henry, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Everett Leo Goodroe of Elm Grove Street on January 20 at St. Joseph Hospital in Pontiac. Mr. Goodroe's mother, from Garden City, took over care of the house and her three grandchildren while Mrs. Goodroe was in the hospital.

Mrs. W. Kirkpatrick of Middlefield Road is in Palmer Osteopathic Hospital. She underwent an operation on her foot recently.

Quinan and Pat Menendez. All proceeds from the cookie sale will go toward the purchase of equipment for Girl Scout Camps for girls of Southeast Oakland County. It is hoped that enough money can be raised to supply additional equipment so that more Girl Scouts of the area can attend campouts this year.

Annual Girl Scout Cookie Sale Set To Open Feb. 6

The annual sale of Girl Scout Cookies will get under way on Monday, February 6, when girls in Scouting in this area will begin making calls to take orders for cookies.

Funds collected from the cookie sale will be used to help maintain a new campsite. The slogan for this year's sale will be "Cookies for a Cookie Camp." A successful cookie sale will mean that the camp can be obtained and placed in operation.

The new area will provide camping facilities for Senior Girl Scouts for periods of a week or more at a time. It will also release more camping space for Intermediate Scouts at Camp Warren.

Additional equipment will be needed to maintain the high quality of the Girl Scout Camps and all the proceeds from the cookie sale will be used exclusively for camping needs.

Head of the Girl Scout Cookie Sale in the Farmington and Novi District is Mrs. Steele Cox.

A District Girl Scout leader said recently, "Some people eat to live and some people live to eat, but this year we hope the public of South Oakland County will eat even heartier so more girls can go to camp. You are asked to remember that every box of cookies sold will mean that another 'cookie' will have the opportunity of a camp-out."
