M. Howe Named Top Homemaker

Mary Howe, an F.H.S. senior, has won the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow contest in this area. She received the highest score in the written examination which tested the homemaking knowledge and attitudes of senior girls. She will be entered in the competition which will name this state's candidate for the title of All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow, and will also be considered for the runner-up award in the state. She will receive a golden award pin and F. H. S. will receive a "Betty Crocker Good and Easy Cook Book." General Mills sponsors this program.

NINE STUDENTS TAKE U-M REGENTS ALUMNI EXAM

Nine students who intend to enter the University of Michigan next fall took the U. of M. Regents Alumni Scholarship exam last Friday, February 17, at the Rackham Building in Detroit. In order to qualify for the exam, the students must be in the top third of their class. Candidates were interviewed by an Alumni Committee and their scholastic records were sent in to the University. The scholarships offered by the Regents alumni provide a year's tuition for the freshmen who qualify. If a student's high average is maintained, the scholarship is renewed each year. The students from Farmington who took the exams were: Alice Annette, Daniel Burnett, David Corgh, Barry Coutts, Russell Desjardis, William Fulton, Frank Himmeler, Rodney Layton, and Guy Hower.

Several new decisions affecting students of Farmington Senior High were made or announced at the February 14 meeting of the Senior High faculty. On the problem of student dress, nothing definite has yet been established. The student faculty committee, consisting of Rodney Layton, Betty McNeil, and Sharon Hosler, headed by Mr. Clayton Graham, setup to study the improvement of student dress, reported that on the basis of the questionnaire submitted to students in January, a majority favored banning levis for girls. If any rules on dress are approved, they will go into effect next September. Next year's students will be compelled to take at least five hours of classes with only one study hall. One of these required five hours must be a non-academic course. The faculty voted to sponsor the National Honor Society Tea, which has been held each spring for many years. A fee of 60 cents to 75 cents will be paid by each faculty member. A new course, sociology, is going to be offered next year. It will be open to seniors only. Mrs. Bernice Volmer, junior high social studies and English teacher, will teach the course. It will be a one-semester course and offered both semesters. A committee headed by Lee S. Peet has been established to investigate the possibility of teachers having student secretaries next year.

NATIONAL HONOR ASSEMBLY SET FOR FEBRUARY 29

The annual National Honor Assembly will be held on Wednesday, February 29, from 2 to 3 p.m. Each year no more than 15 per cent of the Senior Class is elected to the National Honor Society. The seniors are chosen for scholarship, leadership, character, and service. The faculty rates those in the upper third of the class. This year's list is then referred to a faculty committee headed by Miss Ruth L. Bailey. This committee then makes the final decision. Letters will be sent to the chosen seniors on Saturday, February 25.

TEAM SIX HOLDS FIRST PLACE IN BOWLING LEAGUE

Team Six of the Boys' Bowling League continues to hold first place. Team Six is made up of: Bob Goers, Ed Bonville, Howard Green, and Dennis Hamilton. Individual high three game series was bowled by Ron Roberts with 478. Herb Hooves and Larry Hart tied for top single game honors with 167. Ron Roberts leads the league with an average of 150, followed by Melvin Sutton with 148.

Team	Won	Lost
Team 6	31	17
Team 1	28	20
Team 2	26	21
Team 3	22	27
Team 4	19	29
Team 5	19	29

State Labor Scholarships Available To Seniors

The Michigan Federation of Labor scholarships are available to any senior in high school in the state of Michigan. The two students rating the highest on an examination based on the subject "The American Labor Movement" will receive $500 toward college. The examination will be given on Saturday, April 21, 1956 at 10 a.m. Any senior interested can secure an application blank from Miss Carley. The deadline for filing applications is March 13, 1956.

RETAIL CLASS TOURS J. L. HUDSON COMPANY STORE

The retailing class and the third hour business training class took a trip to the J. L. Hudson Company February 16. They visited the various departments, window display offices, the carpenter shop, and the busheing area, where clothing for men and women is altered. They saw the store hospital, personnel offices, and the receiving department where they mark or price the goods. This question was brought up by one of the students, "Why are the goods in the basement cheaper than those upstairs?" The answer: The basement has separate buyers from those upstairs. The students left at 9 a.m. and returned at 11:20. Mr. Graham and Mr. Hays accompanied them.

TENTATIVE PLANS FOR DRIVER TRAINING COURSE REVEALED AT FARMINGTON H. S.

Tentative plans for the driver education course. One quarter credit will be given for the 12-week course here. The course will be open primarily for sophomores. However, a few freshmen and juniors may be able to participate if they are the right age. The course will be twelve weeks long. There will be three cars and three instructors. A new state law, recently passed, states that after February 1, 1957, all persons between the ages of 16 and 18 must have, before they can get a license, a certificate of safety that they had passed a driver education course.

At the meeting of the school board on Tuesday, February 14, discussion of the issue was postponed until the next meeting, which will be Monday, February 27. A botanist is a man who knows all about flowers, and a florist is a man who knows all about how much people will pay for them.

Lois Ayres Wins Top Rating at District Meet

Lois Ayres, senior in P.S. II, took a first rating in the Solo and Ensemble Festival at Ypsilanti, Michigan. Lois played Bach's "Prelude and Fugue" on the piano. On March 24, she will go to the University of Michigan to play in the state contest. Richard Mckeracher, eighth grade, also took a first playing an alto saxophone solo. The judges rated the contestants on such things as tone, rhythm, technique, interpretation, selection, memorization, and the general effect.

MICHIGAN BELL

TELEPHONE Lines

ADDITIONAL TELEPHONES make life easier for the entire family. Telephones in the kitchen, the play-room, the bedroom—wherever they are needed—save time and steps. These additional telephones are especially important if you have a baby, or two in the house. With a telephone at your finger tips, you don't have to leave your tots even for a minute when the phone rings. (And a minute is all they need for harm or mischief!) Why not ask about those additional phones today? They only cost a few pennies a day.

THERE SEEMS TO BE no end to the value of the telephone! New uses for it are turning up almost every day. For instance, a supermarket recently requested Michigan Bell to install telephone outlets at the end of the shelves, with lines running to the stock room. As soon as the merchandise runs low, the shelves can be immediately replenished. So the chances are when you walk into this store, you'll find just what you're looking for, right where it belongs. The telephone does serve in so many ways, doesn't it?

DO YOU SAVE pieces of string? The telephone company is like that... only more so. Odds and ends of wire and worn parts are carefully collected because they have real value. Tons of this scrap are shipped each year to Western Electric supply unit of the Bell System. There they are fed into giant furnaces, melted and remade into wire and brand-new parts. This thrifty economy is important to all of us because it helps keep the cost of telephone service down.
