

Teams 3 And 4 Win In Men's Recreation League

In Men's Recreation League basketball play last week, Team 4 scored a lopsided victory over Team 1 and Team 3 dropped Team 2.

Team 3 was afforded a little more opposition by Team 2 but had what was needed for a 43-31 win. They were paced by Benedict and Kleba with ten points each. T. Isley dumped in 16 points for Team 2.

Paced by Chute with 26 points, Team 4 had an easy time in knocking up a 60 to 28 victory over Team 1. Yuttl dominated in 13 points for the losers but received little help from his teammates.

STATE RECREATION COUNCIL OFFERS AID TO COMMUNITIES

Communities interested in developing recreation programs will find valuable information in a recent report published by the Michigan Inter-Agency Council for Recreation, say Conservation authorities.

Ernest V. Blohm, executive secretary of the council, said the report is designed to outline local and state responsibilities in recreation. The booklet also lists some of the functions and achievements of the council during the past year.

The council formed in 1949 is a cooperative organization of 19 state governmental agencies and associate members. Gerald E. Edy, director of the Conservation Department, is chairman of the council's executive committee.

Recreational information and assistance are available to communities that contact the Inter-Agency Council's office at Lansing, 25.

F.H.S. Cantata Set For March 20

The Farmington Senior High School vocal music department, under the direction of Mr. William Feucht, will present a repeat performance of the cantata, "The Seven Last Words of Christ," on March 20 in the senior high auditorium.

Three music soloists will be featured in the program. Mrs. Dan Karney will be the soprano soloist. She is vocal music instructor for the junior high school.

Carl Hoover will be the tenor. He is a leading tenor in Lansing civic affairs. George Mullin, Sr. of Farmington, will be the baritone.

The cantata is based on the crucifixion of Christ, observed the world over during the Lenten season.

The vocal groups practicing on Sunday afternoons in preparation for the program are: Girls' Glee Club, Boys' Glee Club, Falconaires, Girls' Triple Trio, and the Mixed Chorus.

The group will be accompanied by Lois Ayres at the piano and Mrs. William Feucht at the electric organ, donated for the occasion by the Peck Allen Organ Company of Detroit.

Tickets may be obtained from all students in the department.
