

FLORIDA VISITORS TAKE CRUISE TO HAVANA, NASSAU

Now vacationing in the sunny south, Mr. and Mrs. John Reid of Dohany Drive, Farmington, and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde F. Centers of Farmington Road, Livonia, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Habermas of Grosse Pointe recently took a four-day cruise.

Their cruise, aboard the S. S. Evangeline, took them from Miami to Havana and Nassau and back again.

They spent Saturday in Havana where they visited Morro Castle and shopped. In Nassau on Monday they shopped in the native street market, visited Paradise Beach, browsed in British shops and took carriage rides to picturesque forts.

Dorcas Society Holds Surprise Birthday Party

A surprise birthday party was held for Dana Cordone of 19591 Imperial Highway on Wednesday, March 7, by the Dorcas Women of the Clarenceville Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Nila Breakey, leader of the Dorcas Society, planned the surprise to bring a little cheer to Dana after a bout of illness in her home. Luncheon was served by the women and plans were made to finish a spin quilt as a gift from the Dorcas group.

Bits Of News About Area Girl Scouting Activities

Our Lady of Sorrows

Girl Scouts and Brownies of Our Lady of Sorrows Parish are working on plans for the Juliette Low party on March 21. The theme "Americana" has necessitated much research into historical modes and manners.

Brownie Troop 466, led by Mrs. John Petersmark and Mrs. Joseph Musak, has been fashioning Italian headresses as part of its program. The troop also celebrated its troop birthday March 14. Mothers of the members were present.

Senior Girl Scout Troop 179, directed by Mrs. John Quinlan, will sell Girl Scout Cookies in the school hall after all starting on Sunday, March 18, at 8 a.m.

Clarenceville

A meeting of the Clarenceville Girl Scout Association was held Monday, March 5, at the home of Mrs. Louis Schmidt with 19 members in attendance. Final arrangements for the Scout banquet on March 15 were made.

The women and plans were made to finish a spin quilt as a gift from the Dorcas group.

Brownie Troop 4, under the leadership of Dorcas Marshall and Helen Triller, attended the Shrine Circus recently, held a flag presentation, and made valentines for hospitalized children. They also held a Girl Scout Birthday celebration party and took in seven new Brownies.

Girls of the troop have been busy recently making place mats for the Scout banquet.

Brownie Troop 5, led by Mrs. Holden and Mrs. Phelps, installed the Brownies and committee members this month and set up a tent.

POST OFFICE JOB APPLICATIONS NOW BEING ACCEPTED

Applications are now being accepted by the Civil Service Commission for the positions of substitute clerk and substitute carrier for duty at the Farmington Post Office.

All applicants must be 18 or over and take a written test to determine eligibility. No maximum age limit is set. Competition is restricted to persons residing within the delivery area of the Farmington Post Office or to persons now employed in that office. Applications should be filed with the Director of the Seventh U. S. Civil Service Region, New Post Office Building, Chicago 7, Illinois. Full information and application forms are now available at the Farmington Post Office.

FARMINGTON - 8 MILE EXTENSION GROUP MAKES DESSERTS

The Farmington - Eight Mile Extension group met last week at the home of Mrs. Earl Marks at 29000 Belfast.

Mrs. Marks and Mrs. Van Camp, leaders, presented the lesson "Deserving Desserts," and the members participated in making three desserts. The group enjoyed making the desserts and eating them when completed.

On Tuesday, members of the extension group made their regular monthly visit to their adopted ward at the Northville State Hospital. A party with a St. Patrick's Day theme was held.

Carlton Oldford Enjoying Vacation On West Coast

A card from Carlton Oldford sent from the Knott's Berry Farm at Buena Park, California, last week disclosed that he was enjoying a stay in the Hollywood area and would soon visit in Old Mexico.

Plans call for a three-week stay in San Francisco following his trip to Mexico. Oldford's home in Farmington is 22489 Middlebelt Road.
