Girl Scout Troops Celebrate Scout
Birthday At Middlebelt School

Girl Scouts and Brownies of the Middlebelt School area gathered Friday, March 9, at the school for a ceremony in observance of Girl Scout Birthday Week.

The National Girl Scout Week is being observed this week, March 11 through 17. Nearly 11,000 girls and 4,000 adult members of the Southern Oakland Girl Scout Council have joined in the national celebration of the 44th birthday of Girl Scouting in America.

The program at Middlebelt School Friday began with the introduction of leaders of the seven troops represented by Mrs. Albert Coates, neighborhood chairman. Troops and their leaders represented respectively were: Troop 400, Mrs. Leo Hupert; Troop 76, Mrs. Calhoun and Mrs. Covey; Troop 174, Mrs. Steven Santo and Mrs. Westerlund; Troop 303, Miss Beverly Kaufmann and Mrs. Harlow; Troop 218, Mrs. Clifford Terrell and Mrs. Jack Kallitisch; and Troop 224, Mrs. H. Bartsch and Mrs. O. Martin. Also present was Troop 168, led by Mrs. James Teesch and Mrs. George Bellaire. The latter troop met at the Shiawassee School.

Scouts and parents were entertained with the showing and narration of color slides by Mary Ann Ohman, Senior Mariner Scout of Farmington Troop 527, on her trip to New Mexico last August. Miss Ohman was one of two Scout representatives from Michigan selected to participate in the Senior Girl Scout Archeology Mobile Camp Trip in New Mexico. The Museum of New Mexico and the National Girl Scout Council.

She related her experiences in studying the culture and ancient civilization of the Indians of the Southwest, along with showing pictures taken during the study.

A movie was shown of the Southern Oakland County Day Camp in operation.

Mrs. Wendell Brown, district chairman of the Farmington-Nov area, related the interesting facts of Juliette Gordon Low's life and the beginning of the Girl Scout movement in America.

On display at the celebration was handicraft work done by the Scouts and first aid equipment and projects. At the conclusion of the party, all Scouts and guests were treated to Girl Scout birthday cake.

Baptist Church
Pre-Easter
Services Planned

The First Baptist Church of Farmington will sponsor a series of special Pre-Easter religious services under the direction of the Reverend O. Ferris Scott. Services will begin Monday, March 19, and continue through Easter Sunday evening, April 1. They will be held at 7:30 p.m. each night except Saturday.

Rev. Scott is a well-known Bible teacher and Bible Conference speaker, and is highly recommended by the Reverend B. Myron Cedarblum, general director of the Conservative Baptist Association of America. He was also a member of the Board of Directors of the A. B. F. M. S. for three years.

The meetings will feature select music, will begin promptly at 7:30 p.m. and close at 8:45 p.m. A nursery and kindergarten will be operated for small children each night.

On Good Friday, March 30, the church will sponsor a special Good Friday Service with Reverend Scott speaking on the words, "It is Finished." One of the seven utterances from the cross. This service will be held between 1:00 and 2:00 p.m.

Rev. Scott appeared in Farmington last July, speaking during the pastor's absence, and was exceptionally well received. Coming as an experienced pastor himself but with an appreciation of Jesus facing men and women and churches in America today because of his extensive Bible Conference ministry, Mr. Scott has a real contribution to render today. The community is cordially invited to attend.

Local Girl Will Help With Mercy College Open House

Plans are now being completed for an open house at Detroit Mercy College from 2 to 8 p.m. Sunday, March 18. Marilyn Wallis of 33801 State Street, Farmington, is a member of the tea committee which will serve at the open house. She is a student at Mercy College. All high school seniors interested in the teacher education field are extended a cordial invitation to attend the open house. Demonstrations in classroom teaching will be presented and student teachers will actually conduct specially arranged classes to give an idea of procedures in the classroom.

A tour of the college and campus will also be conducted.
