

Three pastel-pretty party drinks made with frozen Florida orange and grapefruit juice concentrates: Grapefruit-Raspberry Drink in the bowl, Low-Calorie Grapefruit Delight, and frothy Florida Ambrosia Refresher.

Sip Away A Summer Day...

When the sun is shining overtime and the mercury soars, treat yourself to a wonderful summer cooler. A frothy punch, a fruity frosted, or a tall drink in a chilled glass is your passport to a world of cool contentment.

The drinks are based on zingy frozen citrus juices, in plentiful supply the year around. And when you are sipping a citrus beverage, you get more than refreshment and fine taste. Citrus is the finest natural source of Vitamin C, needed in daily supply.

FLORIDA ORANGE JUICE is a most pleasurable way to consume your daily vitamin C. It tastes great solo and the juice combines beautifully with a variety of other fruits as well. To make Fruited Orange Frosteds, for instance, add fresh or frozen fruit ... blueberries, raspberries or peaches ... and a scoop of orange sherbet. Top with more fruit for an attractive garnish, and there you have a delicious, easy-to-prepare cooler.

Orange-Coconut Dream is a real confection of a drink; wonderful to add refreshment at party time. Milk, cream, coconut, orange juice, and sherbet whirl to a froth in the blender. Top with whipped cream and grated orange rind for a drink that's delicious ... and a nutritional powerhouse.

A delicious punch adds flair to the summer party ... and the recipe that follows is a snap to prepare, so delicious it will appeal to just about any party guest. Blend together raspberry jam and Florida grapefruit juice, add club soda and raspberry sherbet. Ladle into punch cups and garnish with whipped cream. This one is a special favorite with youngsters, does beautifully at the children's party as an accompaniment to the "happy birthday" cake.

IF YOU'RE DIETING, Svelte Grapefruit Dessert-Drink is a real gem with a low calorie count. Combine Florida grapefruit juice concentrate with low-calorie ginger ale in a tall glass, add a topping of beaten egg white, and sprinkle with nutmeg. It's most attractive and flavorful.
