2 Community Services Set For Livonia's Spree '23

By MARGARET MILLER

Outreach is the word of the hour for the Livonia Ministerial Association.

The word has several connotations for this group of leaders of area churches. It refers, for one thing, to the association's plan for two Sunday services for Livonia's Spree '23.

That marks the first time the association has joined in a total community project. In addition, outreach could refer to the association's widening geographical circle and to its plans for projects during the coming year.

Several clergymen whose churches are outside Livonia are new members of the group.

Two of them, the Rev. Ron Johnson of Augsburg Lutheran Church in Redford Township and the Rev. William Copenhaver of Trinity Church of the Brethren in Redford, are serving this year as president and secretary, respectively.

Sister Margaret Basso of the Newman Center at Schoolcraft College is vice president.

The projected new activity for the next year is working with area institutions, including St. Mary Hospital, Northville State Hospital and the Plymouth State Home, in establishing chaplaincies.

Major attention now is going to the plans for Spree '23 and the two services and other activities planned for Ford Field.

Livonian Has Bar Mitzvah

The bar mitzvah of Arlin Curtis Blum is being observed at the Livonia Jewish Congregation, 31840 W. Seven Mile, at Saturday morning services, June 23.

Arlin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Blum of Brentwood Avenue, Livonia.

Two confirmations were recently observed during Friday evening services at the congregation.

The two were Kathryn Beth Manning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Manning of Hixson Avenue, Livonia, and Denny Sarason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steven Sarason of Leemore Avenue, Southfield.

Confirmation was the culmination for Kathryn and Denny of attending the congregation's Sunday school for 12 years. The parents of both girls greeted the guests at the congregational honoring their daughters at the conclusion of the services.

from their evil ways, then I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and heal their land."

No offering will be received during the community service, said Rev. Johnson.

"We want people to contribute to their local congregations on that day," he said. "The greatest contribution they can make to the community service is their presence and interest."

Following the ecumenical service, a eucharistic liturgy for Catholics will be led by the Rev. John Smith of St. Priscilla church in Livonia.

Father Smith, recently named vicar of the Northwest Wayne County vicariate, is asking other priests in the area to be celebrants.

"The two services will versity as well as community," said Sister Margaret. "While working together on one project, we will separate needs of different people."

In addition to the two services, the ministerial association will make several other contributions to Spree '23.

There will be a tent in operation throughout the festival, showing the film "The Parable" and distributing assorted literature.

In addition, the Rev. Ken Wallace and the Livonia Assembly of God have arranged to sponsor a child care center on Saturday, June 30, so that youngsters will have a place to play while their parents enjoy the events of the festival.

St. Agatha Of Redford Marks 25th Birthday

A procession through the grounds and buildings of St. Agatha Catholic Church, 19550 Beech Daly, Redford Township, will highlight a 25th anniversary celebration for the parish Sunday, June 24.

The special events, also marking the Feast of Corpus Christi, will conclude with the benediction of the blessed sacrament in the garden of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary, part of the St. Agatha grounds.

St. Agatha's first mass was celebrated in Burgess School. The first building, now used as a gymnasium for the school and parish, was finished early in 1949 and was used as temporary quarters.

From that time on the parish grew steadily. Its facilities now include a sanctuary, complete grade school and high school, a rectory, convent and gym.

All former parishioners, neighbors and friends are invited to join in the day's festivities.

After the ceremonies, there will be a garden reception with refreshments served.
