Spring house-cleaning and the painting season has rolled around here at "rube" and in many other homes. I know everyone is busy, but if you can spare a minute won't you please give me a ring and tell me your news? A lot of you have told me you enjoy this column and I enjoy writing it, but it could use more news. Just dial GR. 4-6152.

Mrs. Nellie Guenther of Buena Park, California, is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Roy Shaw of Collierville Street.

Beatrice Bellairs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bellairs of Middlebelt Road, left Wednesday for Daytona Beach, Florida. She will spend a month visiting her grandparents.

Beth Forbes, six week old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Forbes of Albion Street, is a patient in Sessions Hospital in Northville. Little Beth is very ill with pneumonia.

A mighty happy couple over on Tulane Street are Mr. and Mrs. Allen Ingle. On Wednesday they adopted a three month old girl and they have named her Jill Ann. The Ingles have a son, Allen.

Robert Byrne, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Byrne of Waldron Street, has enlisted in the Armed Forces and will report for duty on April 2. Bob attended Farmington High School.

The Marian Shaw Circle of the Clarenceville Methodist Church will meet Tuesday night, March 27, at the home of Mrs. Austin Avolt, 1915 Brentwood. The Mary Martha Circle will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Rice, 22188 Albion.

Calvin Coolidge was Vice President under Warren Harding. He became President at Harding's death in 1923.

Vocal Students Win High Ratings

Nine members from Clarenceville High School participated in the annual vocal and ensemble festival, which was held Saturday at the Pontiac High School.

The double quartet performed "Madame Jeannette" acappella, for adjudication, and were recommended for a rating of excellent by Dr. H. Morgan. Dr. Morgan is the director of music at Michigan State Normal College at Ypsilanti.

Members of the double quartet are: Donna DeFavero, Sharon Hetta, Joyce McKinney, Donald Melton, Bruce Moren, Charles Meyer, Mary Shuffett, and Donald Warner.

Joyce McKinney, in a soprano solo, chose "Were You There When They Crucified My Lord?" She was accompanied by Gail Andrews. Miss McKinney received an excellent rating by Mrs. Margaret Vanderhart from Alma College.

These people will represent the Clarenceville High School and their community, stated Mr. Perrin, chorus director. "Such outstanding talent should be developed and permitted to represent its community each year at such events," he said.

F.H.A. TO TAKE GREYHOUND LINE MYSTERY TRIP

The girls in F. H. A. Club held a meeting Wednesday, March 14, in the homecoming department to make plans for a Greyhound mystery trip, which will take place April 7.

Sharon Butler contacted the Greyhound Company and brought back the report concerning the trip. Members of the F. H. A. will be permitted to bring friends along. It was decided. There will be two chaperones and a minimum of thirty girls going on the trip. The Greyhound Line will take the girls to two different places besides stopping for lunch. The bus will leave at 11:30 a.m.

Name Selected For Senior Class Play

The seniors, at a class meeting Thursday, March 15, decided to name their prom on May 12 "Memento to Remember."

Discussion was opened on ways to make money and several suggestions were made. One way to sell personalized stationery, another was to try to obtain a car wash and run it for a day. The suggestions were referred to a committee.

Largest gem ever discovered on the North American continent by an individual was found recently by a Dallas, Texas, housewife, touring the "Crater of Diamonds," a find-it-yourself diamond field near Murfreesboro, Arkansas. Valued at $15,000, the 15-carat gem cost her $150 — the price of admission to the inactive diggings. Its operators will net 25 per cent of the sale value.
