

Looking Ahead

By DR. GEORGE S. BRINSON

hospital, the seven boys and the teacher survived. "One young man who never again would play loud, and seven children who would hear the word of God only in their hearts."

At another time, the young doctor was summoned to attend a clergyman who had been brought out of Communist Viet Nam on a stretcher by members of his flock. "Lying on a straw mat was an old man moaning in delirium," Lieutenant Dudley remarks. "I counted eight swollen and badly infected wounds incising his skull. In this instance Communist re-education had consisted of tying the priest's hands behind his back and driving eight nails into his skull to simulate the Crown of Thorns!"

This is the nature of Communism. Those who accept Communism must accept its evil nature for Communism and evil (as the Christian world understands it) are interwoven and inseparable. "Our morality," wrote Lenin, "is entirely subordinated to the interests of the class struggle" to conquer the world.

TV will be hostile many of its comedy shows during the summer months, but station managers are not the least bit worried this season. They'll have the political conventions to televise.

Education Through Fine Arts

Art An Important Part Of Students' Education In Elementary Grades

This is the fourth in a series of articles on the forthcoming "Education Through Fine Arts" program to be presented by students in the Farmington Elementary Schools. This week's article deals with the over-all music training offered students and the numerous ways in which it helps them in growth and development.

"The purpose of the Elementary Art program in Farmington Schools is primarily devoted as a part of the complete education of the student," Robert Benjamin, Elementary Art Consultant, stated. "It contributes to the thinking power of an individual, thus making him a better citizen. It is necessary that art is creative, that it belongs to an individual and as such must have an element of freedom and independence. No matter whether the medium used is crayon, water colors, poster paint, paper or clay the student needs the freedom to handle, experiment and approach his subject as he sees fit."

In the Farmington elementary schools it is the classroom teacher's responsibility, with the aid of the art consultant, to present materials in such a way that the child will have this freedom under the teacher's guidance, to formulate his own picture while at the same time acquiring and experimenting with the various skills necessary to the task.

Besides this element of creativity, we in Farmington believe that art should be enjoyed. It may or may not have a relationship with past or present culture, but in addition should provide an opportunity for the child to experiment with materials and methods to add to the experiences that unite to form a full life. Students throughout the Farmington Elementary Grades are provided the opportunity to work with the five basic materials, considered essential to an elementary art program by the National Art Association. Clay, poster paint, colored paper, colored chalk and crayons are the five materials which provide a well rounded program designed to accomplish the purposes that have been outlined above.

In addition, during the grade years many varied materials are available for the students' use. Cardboard and poster board, finger paint, paper, mache, cloth, block printing, weaving, sewing materials, transparent water colors, wood, metal foil, charcoal, pencils, ink, soap, textile paint, raffia, plaster, and silkscreen are but a few of the various materials and methods that are used.

Work in these mediums is presented to the students in a way that encourages freedom, accomplishment, and progress. The knowledge, aptitude, enjoyment, technique, and skill of the students are enhanced through their use in the grades. Thus the art program offers aid in the development of adjusted, well integrated personalities who know what it is to create for themselves.

This growth of the individual continues through Junior High and High School and for life. In order to reflect the continuing influence of art and to show the training as it pertains to Junior High and High School, we have asked Bill Harry, Junior High Art Teacher and Ray Glenn, Senior High Art Teacher to contribute work from their students to show typical work of the various grades.

Next week an article will give a short preview of the Education Through Fine Arts program to be presented April 20 and May 4 at Farmington Elementary schools.

Local Family Visits Bellingrath Gardens

Mr. and Mrs. William F. VanLienop and son Brian were visitors the latter part of March at Bellingrath Gardens and Home at Mobile, Alabama.

Bellingrath Gardens is internationally famous for having one of the world's largest camellia collections for mass blooming azaleas. It is owned by a non-profit foundation set up for the benefit of three colleges and two churches.

A New York City fashion designer has created a summer wardrobe of burlesque. For the enjoyment of sweet-potato mashers, no doubt.
