'LEARN TOGETHER'
GROUP CONCLUDES
SIX WEEK SERIES

The pre-school children and mothers "Learn Together Group" closed its six week series of meetings last week.

Miss Minnie Zielke, elementary coordinator of Farmington Schools, reports that the meetings, sponsored by the Creative Arts committee of the Farmington Branch of the A. A. U. W., had an average attendance of 28 people. Those participating worked in the fields of music, art and literature.

Credit for helping to make the program a success went to Wava Vineyard, Bob Benjamin and Jeanette Senoh, who gave so generously of their time throughout the series.

Closing the series, the group composed a poem which summarizes the series. The poem reads as follows:

A PARTY
A party is jolly
and oh so much fun!
Let's send invitations
To everyone.

The things we'll do
And the games we'll play
Will make this day
Happy-go-lucky day!

A party is jolly
And oh so much fun
For Mother and me
and everyone!

The hours between 4 and 8 p.m. are the most dangerous hours of the day to drive.

Announcing the New
RIVERSIDE CHAPEL

Sponsored by the Trinitarian Avenue Presbyterian Church, Detroit, Mich.

Sylvia Jean Anderson of 26836

Power Road became the bride of Alexander Branzel of 18352 Wisconsin Avenue, Detroit.

The former Miss Anderson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivar

G. Anderson. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Branzel.

The double-ring ceremony was conducted by Reverend Russell

Sursaw before an altar decorated with white and pink stock, palms and candles. Organ selections were played by Mrs. Edith Stone with Axel Anderson, uncle of the bride, singing "I Love But Thee,"

and "The Lord's Prayer."

A gown of white raw silk made in Empire style with a square

neckline trimmed in iridescent sequins and pearls was chosen by the bride. The dress had a chapel train and long sleeves. The chapel train veil was trimmed in lace and held in place by a crown of pearls and sequins. She carried a bridal bouquet of stephanotis and baby mums centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Ivar C. (Ann) Anderson,

sister-in-law of the bride, serving as matron of honor wore a pale pink lawn, waist length gown and carried a basket of lily. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Nancy Cannon,

Betty Ann Gustafson and Ruth

Gustafson. Alice Ann Nelson was a junior bridesmaid. All wore rose colored lawn, waist length gowns. They wore small white hats and carried baskets of lily.

Acting as best man was Stanley

Rangeloff with Ivar C. Anderson,

Victor Rangeloff and James Branzei serving as groomsmen.

The bride's mother chose a rose colored lace dress with wedge wood blue accessories and wore a white carnation corsage. The groom's mother wore a navy blue crepe dress with pink accessories complimented with a corsage of pink roses.

Following the wedding a reception

was held at the American Legion

Hall on Grand River in the form of a smorgasbord. Baskets of white and pink stock and white wedding bells adorned the hall.

Selections were sung at the reception in honor of the bridal couple by the Arpi Swedish Male chorus.

A toast was given by Stanley

Rangeloff.

The bride, who attended Farmington High School and Albion

College, is presently employed in the Walled Lake School System.

Mr. Branzel is employed at the U. S. Arsenal in Detroit. He served in the U. S. Army and was wounded in Korean fighting. He received his advance schooling at Lawrence Institute of Technology.

On return from a honeymoon in the Smoky Mountains the couple will make their residence in a newly purchased home in Southfield Township.

WOMAN'S CLUB

The Farmington Woman's Club

will meet on Wednesday, May 2, at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Ed-

Blue Star
Mothers
L. MCINTYRE

The Farmington Blue Star Mothers held their regular business meeting in the Clarensville Fire Hall on Thursday, April 18, with President Margaret Kahrl presiding.

It was decided to send a gift to the little Korean girl, "Blue Star," adopted by the Farmington chapter last year. April 27 is her fourth birthday anniversary.

A donation was also sent to the Farmington Cancer Fund. The Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary, Post 4033, was sent a gift to be used in their new home on Orchard Lake Road.

The Blue Star Mothers made a similar donation to the American Legion Auxiliary some years ago when they moved to their new home on Grand River.

Edna Lint returned to her home Sunday from Grace Hospital and is convalescing at her home on Roosevelt Street. Mrs. Lint is beginning her tenth year as financial secretary of the Farmington Chapter.

The Past Presidents' Club will meet in Port Huron on Tuesday, May 8. All past presidents of Blue Star Mothers' Chapters are eligible for membership and all past presidents of the Farmington chapter are members.

The May luncheon and card party will be held at the home of Margaret Kahrl, 33516 State Street. May Fox will serve as chairman. The date is Wednesday, May 9, and lunch will be served at 1 p.m. The public is invited to the luncheon.

The next Blue Star Mothers business meeting will be held Thursday, May 17, in the Clarensville Fire Hall on Wheeler Street at 1 p.m. Delegates for the Department of Michigan convention, to be held in Saginaw the first week in June, will be elected at the meeting. All members are urged to attend.

Local Woman To Sing
At Madrigal Concert

August Mackelberghe, Belgium-born organist, conductor and composer, will direct the Madrigal Club of Detroit in its 41st annual concert, scheduled for Tuesday, May 9, at the Detroit Institute of Arts auditorium.

Singing with the 34-voice women's chorus will be Mrs. L. P. Nelson of 23925 Millbrook Drive, Farmington.

Highlighting the concert will be the complete "Alcein-Wonderland" song cycle by Irving Fine. In addition, the club will sing a group of early madrigals by Benet, Purcell, Handel, Morley and Rameau, art songs by Brahms and Richard Strauss, and a group of folk songs and spirituals.
