

DRESSED in the costume of a Latin American Indian, fifth grade student Rae Ann Butler, demonstrates painting work taught to elementary students during the Education Through Fine Arts program held at the Farmington High School last Friday evening, April 20. Demonstrations of the various fine arts training given elementary students was presented by students from the Gill, Ten Mile, and Shawwassee Schools. Friday evening, May 4, students from the Eagle, Bond and Middlebelt Schools will present a similar program. The purpose of these programs is to show how vocal and instrumental music training, as well as art and industrial art training, is integrated into the elementary students' overall educational training.

Grace Lutheran Church Reports Variety Of Activities For Month

Rev. and Mrs. Victor Halboth of Grace Lutheran Church, Grand River and Imperial Highway, visited with their son, Victor, Jr., who is vicarizing at St. John's Lutheran Church there. Recent visitors from the church included Mrs. Blanche Fallwade, of Rome, announced their engagement.

The Ladies Guild of Grace Lutheran Church is sponsoring a Cap and Sauer card party on Friday, April 27, at 8 p.m. The Ruth Circle is in charge of the affair.

The Ladies Guild met Thursday, April 12, in the church basement with Eva Sanko presiding. Mrs. Persen gave a talk and showed slides on outdoor gardening.

Hannah Courts, Carolyn McAllister and Lois Stiva were welcomed into membership. Among the visitors were: Arvilla Koenig, Helen Girard, Blanche Nelson, Lorna Kraft, and Imogene McClelland. Refreshments were served under the chairmanship of Kathleen Grimm, Violet Goertner, Emma Griffin, Frances Guenther, Velma Hess and Evelyn Hoffman.

The Grace Lutheran Sunday School staff and the Lutheran Women's Missionary League met on April 16 to hear Mrs. John Moravitz tell of her missionary work in Japan.

The Ladies Guild is now obtaining reservations for the Lutheran caravan to Holland, Michigan, for the Tulip Festival. The trip will be made by bus on Saturday, May 19. Breakfast will be served at the Michigan State University in East Lansing, and dinner at Zion Lutheran Church in Holland. Mrs. Ella Plichta is in charge of reservations.

Prayer Books were awarded to Allan Smith, Beverly Smith and Bill Woodward for their third year of perfect attendance. Jerry Pringle and Linda Ferrell received a Bible for a year's perfect attendance. Cheryl Boese, Janet Gutes and William Hills, Cheryl Motte and Carolyn Voltz received hymnals for their second year of perfect attendance.

Danny Isaacson, Norman Malloy, Betty Jane Smith, and Ed O'Connor received their third year, and Jimmy Kirsch his fourth-year bar. Receiving fifth-year bars were Janet School staff and the Lutheran Women's Missionary League.

KENDALLWOOD NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Cove recently entertained friends from Lincoln, Nebraska. Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Mullen and their son spent a few days at the Cove home on Green Willow. The Mullens are on their way to Florida and will visit the Coves again on their return trip.

Amvet Post 76 Now Accepting Beauty Entries

Perry Kenner Amvets Post 76 of Novi announced this week that applications are now being accepted for the annual Post Beauty Contest, to be held on Saturday evening, May 19, at the post home. Entrants must be not younger than 17 nor older than 26 years of age. They must be unmarried and have been a resident of Michigan at least one year prior to August 28, 1956.

One winner, to be known as Miss Amvet Post 76, will be selected to represent the Post at the State Convention Beauty Contest at the Pontiac Hotel in Grand Rapids on June 23. If selected Miss Michigan Amvet, she will represent the Department at the National Convention in Milwaukee on September 1.

Miss Amvet Post 76 will receive a $25 bond and travel expenses to and from Grand Rapids, plus food and lodging for the time spent in Grand Rapids.

The contest is not limited to the Novi area, in fact, the last two queens selected were from Milford.

Application blanks are available by calling GR. 4-0760 or by writing to Gordon Promo, 23893 N. Lost, Novi, Michigan.

In 1955, 2,158,000 persons were injured in motor vehicle accidents.

Springbrook Civic News

Mrs. Alvin Nicholson of Springbrook Drive held a belated birthday luncheon in honor of Mrs. William Taylor of Westmoreland Drive. Twelve of the neighbors were present and presented Mrs. Taylor with a lovely gift.

Thursday evening Mrs. John Chambers was hostess to 20 of her neighbors and friends. Mrs. Chambers and Mrs. John Tereschuk both won prizes. Mrs. Chambers combined this party, which was a demonstration of hair products, with a welcome to her new neighbor, Mrs. G. Philip Kidd. Mr. and Mrs. Kidd are from Buffalo and have moved into their new home on Westmoreland Drive.

We welcome two more new families, Mr. and Mrs. Helmut Bayer and children Kathy and Dick of Harcourt Drive and Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Carlson of Springbrook Drive.

The Robert Hugs spent the week end in Painesville, Ohio, and brought Mrs. Hugs's sister, Mrs. Paul Dougherty, home with them for a visit.

Approximately 15,730 persons were killed in week end traffic accidents last year.

LOCAL SAILORS COMPLETING BOAT TRAINING

Thomas E. Fellows, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fellows of 21318 Robinson, and Edward L. Daniels, son of Mrs. Vida Daniels of 23415 Purdue, and husband of the former Mrs. Joanne E. Oliver of 34500 Grand River Cut-off, all of Farmington, are scheduled to graduate from recruit training April 28 at the Naval Training Center at Great Lakes, Illinois.

The two weeks of "Boot Camp" training includes drill and instruction in seamanship, gunnery, life saving, sea survival, boat handling and the use of small arms.

Following two weeks leave, graduates will be assigned to shipboard duties or service schools depending on the qualifications each has demonstrated.

Eighty-five per cent of the vehicles involved in accidents were passenger cars.

A woman is the only being that can skin a wolf and get a mink. Only ten pounds of a 340-pound pig are center cut pork chops.
