Seeks Approval For New School Safety Program

At a meeting of James Read, as-sistant superintendent of schools, and elementary school principals held last Friday, films on a phase of youngstor safety were shown by Earl Teeples, Franklin Knolls po-

Earl Teeples, Franklin Knolls policeman.
The films, entitled "Dangerous Stranger" and "Name Unknown," point up the dangers which young and old alike encounter in accepting rides in autos with strangers in going off with persons unknown to them. It is Teeples' hope that a continual program of isafely along these lines including the showing of the films can be started in the Farmington school system.
The over-all goal would be, he stated, to educate youngsters in the proper conduct to follow when and if approached by persons of ferring rides, candy, gifts, and othe er encouragements.
Along with the films, Teeples displayed sample pamphets which he hopps to have distributed through the schools which wouls
