

Complete Naming Of Boys' State Delegation For '56

The names of three Clarenceville High School junior boys who will attend Wolverine Boys' State at East Lansing this year, along with the six Farmington boys announced last week, have now been disclosed.

Clarenceville boys selected were David Stingle, Donald Melton and David Hanford. Stingle is being sponsored by Farmington Township, Melton by the Clarenceville Optimist Club, and Hanford by the Clarenceville High School PTA.

Boys from Farmington who will attend Boys' State and their sponsors are: Bob Brewbaker, Kiwanis Club; Don Pember, Exchange Club; Wesley Jones, City of Farmington; Richard Hoffman, American Legion; Tom Kosty, Jaycees; and Dale Golla, Township Lions Club.

The group will leave for the Michigan State University campus at East Lansing on June 21 and will spend a week there learning more about state and community government. They will travel to East Lansing in a caravan with boys from 22 other communities. Heading the Farmington group will be Bob Brewbaker. The Clarenceville group will be led by Don Melton.

On June 17 boys from this area will gather at Clawson for a county convention, where they will be briefed on the Boys' State program for this year.

Be sure that they who tell you of others' faults will tell your faults to others.

Staman Acres

Cancer Pinning Group Formed

So "spanking new" it is still nameless, a group of 23 Staman Acres women have formed a cancer pinning club. An organizational meeting was held Thursday evening, May 10, at the home of Margaret Wheeler on Staman Circle Drive.

Zora Cross was unanimously chosen as president of the new group. Olive Henning of Belmont Drive was chosen as vice president; Margaret Wheeler as secretary; and Millie Dicks as treasurer.

The group set the second Wednesday of each month as the meeting date to pin cancer pads and aid in the always serious need for more pads with getting acquainted with their new neighbors. All new women coming into the subdivision are urged to join the group.

A brunch meeting for all women having the free time will be held on the first Wednesday of each month. Material for the cancer pads will be torn and prepared for pinning at those meetings.

Jane Paterson, Margaret Sivy, Margaret Wheeler, Zora Cross and Joyce Thompson were responsible for soliciting those in attendance at the first meeting on their respective streets. They also worked in gathering information from the American Cancer Society on the cancer pad pinning program.

Jean Lutzed has been appointed head of the new group's welcoming committee and Margaret Sivy is head of a group for procuring materials.

Alice Oben will entertain at the next brunch meeting of the group, to be held Wednesday, June 7. Patricia Burke of Staman Circle will be hostess for the evening pinning meeting on June 13. Assisting her as co-hostesses will be Patricia Sisty and LaVerne Boehmke.

Lora Ault To Attend Social Workers' Meetings

Lora Ault of this area, associate metropolitan executive director of the YWCA of Detroit, has been chosen by the national group work section of the National Association of Social Workers to attend the First Delegates Assembly of that organization in St. Louis, Missouri, from May 17 to 19, it was disclosed last week.

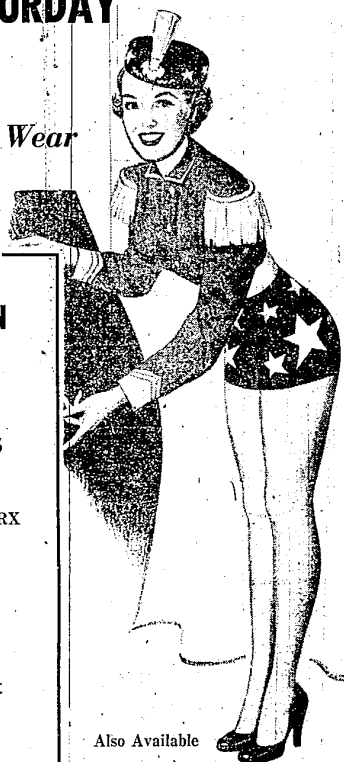

Following the Assembly meetings, Miss Ault will remain in St. Louis from May 20 to 23 to attend sessions of the National Conference of Social Workers as a representative of the Detroit YWCA.

this question:
I'm getting my motorboat ready for the summer season . . . and this year I won't want to take any chances on loss or theft of my boat or outboard motor. Isn't there special insurance coverage to protect these things against loss or accident?
