Local B.P.W. Head
To Take Active
Convention Role

Mrs. Inez Edgar, president of the Farmington Business and Professional Women's Club, will serve as chairman of the budget and finance committee for the 38th annual convention of the Michigan B. & P. W. Clubs, to be held at the Hotel Statler in Detroit May 18, 19, and 20, it was disclosed this week.

The convention will open with the Club Presidents' Luncheon on Friday. Guest speaker for the convention will be Marguerite Rawalt, national president of B. & P. W. and an attorney of Washington, D. C. She will speak at the Saturday night banquet on the topic "The President Reports."

Veronica Dangel, of New York City, lecturer, personality stylist, fashion authority and author of numerous books for women, will speak at the Saturday luncheon. Her topic is "Money Can't Buy It." The week end will be filled with business sessions, project exhibits, presentations of awards, the annual election, and on Friday evening, "Fun Night." The Sunday morning devotional service will be conducted by the Reverend Miss Elizabeth Etz.

Hostess clubs and districts are planning for 800 B. & P. W.'ers from all over Michigan, representing 106 clubs. The convention theme is "Aim High . . . Achieve Your Goal."

Myron H. McClellan, of Ann Arbor, who was president of the National Federation from 1929 to 1931, will conduct the installation ceremonies following the Sunday luncheon. Marcella Douglas and Elizabeth Etz of Northville are convention co-chairmen, coordinating committee arrangements.

Garden Club Card
Party Set May 19

An invitation has been extended to residents of the Farmington and surrounding areas to the annual Farmington Garden Club Card Party, to be held Saturday, May 19, at the Farmington Junior High School on Thomas Street.

Dessert and coffee will be served at 1:00 p.m. Mrs. Allan Nelson, Garden Club president, will greet guests with a welcome address. Tables will be decorated with geraniums of various colors, which will be awarded as table prizes.

Prizes to be given have been donated by local merchants and by members of the Garden Club. Included among the prizes will be a round card table and four chairs, a chaise longue, bird bath and two electric clocks.

Tickets may be purchased from any Garden Club member or by calling GR. 4-5551. They will also be available at the door.

Friends Of Library
Directors Meet May 8

Mary Allison, secretary of the Farmington Friends of the Library, entertained the directors and their guests in her new home on Rockshire Drive last Tuesday evening, May 8.

A short business meeting was held, in which plans were made for committee activities for the coming year, including program, gifts, and membership.

The next meeting will be held on June 11 at the home of Mrs. Stephen Droege.

ELECTED SECRETARY

Rhea Renshaw, niece of Mr. and Mrs. William Fisher of 23850 Glenbrook Drive, and a freshman at Hillsdale College, was recently elected secretary of the International Relations Club at the Hillsdale campus.
