

Frijid Pink... They're Cool!

Teens headed for Livonia's "Spree 23" birthday celebration have a big event to look forward to during the first night.

"Spree 23" will run from June 28 to July 1 at Ford Field, Farmington and Lyndon.

On Thursday, June 28, two top rock bands will perform in the Ford Ice Rink. Frijid Pink, which produced the top hit, "House of the Rising Sun," is scheduled to play, along with a 1950s rock and roll band "Rock and the Sharks."

Also of interest to teens will be the carnival, scheduled from 1 p.m. to 1 a.m. each night of "Spree 23."

On Friday, June 29, teens might partake of a baseball game between two top amateur teams from Detroit and Grand Rapids.

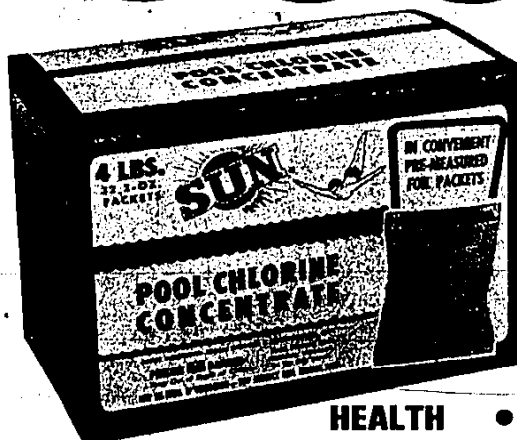

On Saturday, June 30, the Livonia Department of Parks and Recreation will sponsor amateur talent show. Another baseball game is planned for the Ford diamond.

The last day of "Spree 23," Sunday, July 1, will see a family rifle match sponsored by the Livonia Sportsman Club, a variety show and a music program. At 10 p.m., a giant fireworks display will close Spree 23.
