Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Brown of East Tawas, Michigan, formerly of Southfield Township, announce the engagement of their daughter, Patricia, to Donald L. Youngs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Youngs of Tawas City.

Miss Brown, who graduated from Farmington High School in 1933, is now employed at the Ben Franklin Store in East Tawas.

Wedding plans are being made for Saturday, July 21.

Schreibers Return Home
From Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Paul Schreiber and daughter Peggy returned recently from Washington, D. C., where they were entertained by Mrs. Schreiber's brother, Charles D. Jewell, and his family.

Parties and sightseeing highlighted the visit. The week end was spent at the Jewells' summer home on Chesapeake Bay, where swimming and motor boating were enjoyed.

Upon their return home, the Schreibers had as their guests Miss Eleanor Jewell of Grand Rapids, a niece, Mrs. C. D. Jewell and her two children, and her mother, Mrs. Parkhurst of Lansing.

Top quality rayon is about 50 per cent full, 44 per cent lean and about 6 per cent rind. It should be creamy white and well streaked with lean which is bright pinkish in color. Bacon that is too lean may not be tender.

MRS. ROBERT SCHAFER

Gallagher-Schaffer Wed
At St. Joan of Arc Church

At a ceremony in St. Joan of Arc Church, wedding vows were exchanged by Maura Elizabeth Gallagher of Grosse Pointe and Robert Joseph Schaffer of Farmington.

Chantilly lace fell gently over tulle and satin to form the fitted bodice and bouffant skirt of the bridal gown. A fingertip veil of illusion was fastened to a cap of matching Chantilly lace. A white orchid centered her bouquet of white roses, lilies of the valley, stephanotis and ivy.

The bride's sister, Sheila Ann Gallagher, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were the bridegroom's sisters, Mrs. Alfred W. Dittich and Rita Schaffer, and Sallyanne Hull. They wore embroidered white silk organza over ice blue brocade frocks styled with Empire waistlines and bouffant skirts. Headbands of cornflowers and cascades of white carnations and cornflowers completed their attire.

William Schaffer was his brother's best man.

Following the church ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Gallagher, the bride's parents, entertained the bridal party with a breakfast at the Whitlitt Hotel. Guests included the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Schaffer of Detroit and other relatives and friends.

For traveling to the Pocono Mountains, the bride chose a blue and white cotton frock with white straw accessories.

The newlyweds will make their home in Fairview Park, Cleveland, Ohio, following their return from the honeymoon. Mr. Schaffer will join the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautical Research in Cleveland.

IT'S A GIRL!

Mr. and Mrs. L. David Ash of 29605 Highmeadow, Farmington, are the parents of a baby girl, Victoria Lynn, born Sunday, July 9, at Detroit Osteopathic Hospital. The baby, the Ashes' third child, weighed seven pounds twelve ounces at birth.

Mrs. Ash is the former Rosemarie Brooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Brooks of Pennsylvania. Paternal grandmother is Mrs. Lester P. Ash of Detroit.

Nancy Banks, R. LeMieux
Exchange Vows June 23

Nancy L. Banks of 23920 Pickett Avenue and Robert LeMieux of 34029 Grand River Avenue became husband and wife on Saturday, June 23, exchanging vows at Our Lady of Sorrows Church.

The nuptial ring ceremony was performed by Father Thomas Beahan before an altar decorated with white carnations and stock. Vocal selections were rendered by the Sisters of Our Lady of Sorrows Church.

The bridal gown featured a nylon-tulle and lace bodice, long sleeves, and a front lace apron leading into a chapel train. A nylon pleated headress, covered with seed pearls, held a fingertip veil in place. She carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with an orchid.

Maid of honor was Riddelle LeMieux, sister of the groom. She wore an orchid waist-length gown and carried pink carnations. The bridesmaids were Rosamond LeMieux, Marjorie LeMieux and Florence DeVriendt. They wore waist-length gowns of pink, blue and mint green chiffon, respectively. All wore white lace hats and carried pink carnation bouquets.

The groom's oldest brother, Romeo LeMieux, Jr., served as best man. Groomsman were Raymond LeMieux, Joseph DeVriendt, and Ronald LeMieux. Ushers were Ralph LeMieux and Roger Kaiser. The bride's mother, Mrs. Trent Quinn, wore a blue lined dress with white accessories, and the groom's mother, Mrs. Romeo LeMieux, chose a brown and beige linen dress with beige accessories. Both wore purple orchid corsages. A reception was held at the Legion Home on Grand River Avenue. Nancy sandwiches, relishes, cake and coffee were served by Florence Yull and Daisy Aland.

For a wedding trip to northern Michigan, the bride chose a white linen princess dress with lace and blue accessories. The newlyweds are now at home at 33423 Grand River Avenue.

The new Mrs. LeMieux, who graduated from Farmington High School in 1934, is presently employed at the Farmington State Bank. Mr. LeMieux, who also attended Farmington High School, is employed with the Wallace Construction Company.

"Gossamer," caused by cold or strong emotions such as fear, results from contraction of muscles that form a little cylinder around the base of each hair.

Taking Training
In Nature Course

Mrs. Mabel Fike of 25378 Harcourt, Farmington, a school teacher, is one of a group of adults from all over the United States taking part in the current session of the new midwest Audubon Camp near Sarona, Wisconsin.

The camp's central location has attracted a near-capacity group of teachers, youth leaders, and others with a professional or hobby interest in nature and conservation education. The course of instruction emphasizes teaching and leadership techniques. It is designed to equip the student to plan and conduct programs furthering nature appreciation and conservation of natural resources.

The new midwestern Audubon Camp is located at Hunt Hill in Wisconsin's northern lake country - 300 acres of forests, fields, marshes, streams, ponds and lakes.

Livonia
Civic Chorus
Plans Picnic

The Livonia Civic Chorus will hold a summer get-together picnic at the home of the John Stoughtons on Pettibone Lake at 1:30 p.m. Sunday, July 15.

Similar to last summer's picnic as guests of the Stoughtons, a variety of activities will be offered, including swimming, boating, surfboard riding, and corn roasting. Members of the chorus and all persons who may be interested in joining the chorus are invited to attend the picnic with their families. Persons desiring information on how to reach the picnic site are requested to call either Sophie Taday at GR. 4-9157 or Mary Shuring at GA. 1-7317.

Those planning to attend are asked to bring their own food, tables and chairs, and games such as horse shoes, croquet sets, badminton equipment, etc., and their musical instruments. Coffee will be furnished.

The Livonia Civic Chorus meets each Monday night throughout the fall and winter, beginning on the Monday following Labor Day, at the Bentley High School in Livonia. Meetings begin at 7:30 p.m. The chorus presents a Christmas and a Spring concert as well as singing for P.T.A. and other group programs on request.

During the past year the chorus has been organized as an adult education class under the sponsorship of the Livonia Board of Education.

Those unable to attend the picnic are asked to call Mary Shuring or Sophie Taday relative to the future plans of the chorus.

There are more than 1,500 daily and 10,000 weekly newspapers produced in the United States.
