Family Dinner Follows Baptismal Ceremony

Little Bette Caeella Kunderas, daughter of Donna Belle and Gus Kunderas of Detroit, was baptized at the Fort Street Presbyterian Church on Sunday, August 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Curt C. Kofahl of 23230 Eight Mile Road served a turkey dinner to friends and relatives. Among the many guests present was another daughter of the Kofahls from Napa, California.

Mayonnaise that has separated can be blended into a smooth mixture once again by beating up a whole egg or egg yolk and very gradually adding the separated mayonnaise to it.

Truth has only to change hands a few times to become fiction.

The August meeting of the West Farmington Farm Bureau will be held Tuesday evening, August 21, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Button on Twelve Mile Road.

Miss Lois Leach of Power Road and Miss Mary Hults of Haggerly Road were among a group of girls from Girl Scout Troop 273 who enjoyed a week end of swimming, boating and fishing at the cottage of their leader, Mrs. F. J. Reagan, on Bald-Eagle Lake near Ortonville.

Week end guests of the Andre M. Honsens were their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Meyers, and their sons, Frank and George, from Arlington Heights, Illinois.

Royal McCormick is now taking two weeks of maneuvers at Camp Claybank near New Era, Michigan, along with other members of the Michigan National Guard. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Murray of Schroeder Road announce the arrival of a baby son, Robert Dennis, on August 6 at the Detroit Osteopathic Hospital.

Albert Hansen of Greening Road has left for Los Angeles, California, where he will make his home. Franz Hansen, also of Greening Road, is at Hancock, Michigan, for a week's vacation.

Mrs. Royal McCormick and children, Barbara and Royal, Jr., spent Friday with her sister in Detroit. While there Royal, Jr., fell from a bicycle, cutting his leg severely. It required eight stitches to close the wound.

When working in the kitchen, use both hands to put dishes away, to get dishwashing supplies out, to remove food from the refrigerator, and to cut vegetables on a chopping board.
