

Central PTA Hold Initial Meeting

The Central School PTA held its first meeting of the current school year on Monday, September 17, with the main item on the program being an introduction of teachers to parents.

Mrs. Wanda Barnes, school principal, made the introductions and also discussed the various facilities at the school. Parents were not only afforded the opportunity to meet their children's teachers but also to meet and talk with the parents of other youngsters with whom their children are attending school. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Taggart were in charge of hospitality.

A panel discussion was conducted by the teachers from the first through the seventh grades at the school with Mrs. Lydia Lear as moderator. The discussion topic was on what teachers plan to cover in classes during the present school year.

It was pointed out at the meeting that the importance of safety is being emphasized to children at Central School through safety councils, safety patrols and many films on different types of safety. This month the safety

Ladywood Group Plans Tea Sept. 29

The Ladywood Mother's Club will hold a "Get Acquainted" Tea Saturday, September 29, from 2 to 4 p. m.

The tea will provide an opportunity for the mothers to get acquainted with new friends and renew those made in former years, club officials indicated.

Mrs. Viola Kenny, president, requests that all mothers turn out for the tea, which will be held at the school.

The regular Mother's Club meeting will be held Monday, October 1, at 8:00 p. m. The main order of business will be the election of officers, which was postponed last spring.

Lemon - Forgette Wed
Saturday, September 22

Our Lady of Sorrows Church, Farmington, was the scene on Saturday, September 22, of the marriage of Carol V. Lemon of 102 South Rogers Street, Northville, to Joseph Forgette of 21504 Ontago, Farmington.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lemon and were Paul Lemon of Northville, Bill Forgette of Farmington and Richard Jones of Walled Lake.

The bride's mother chose a brown taffeta dress with tan accessories and the bridegroom's mother a turquoise dress with black accessories. Both wore orchid corsages.

Following the church service a wedding breakfast was held for the wedding party and members of the immediate family at Northville. A reception was also held in Northville with approximately 150 in attendance.

A gray linen suit with black accessories was chosen by the bride for going away. Upon return from their wedding trip the newweds will make their home in Novi.

Mr. Forgette is employed as a mechanic. The new Mrs. Forgette, who is a graduate of Farmington High School, has been employed at the Depositors State Bank in Northville.

MRS. JOSEPH FORGETTE

the bridegroom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Forgette.

Mrs. Lemon was given by Father Dunn at 9 a. m. before an altar decorated with flowers. Organ selections were played during the service.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white net over taffeta with a lace jacket and a fingertip veil. She carried white carnations.

The bride's attendants included Mrs. Betty Jane Lemon, Northville, matron-of-honor; Mrs. Janet Jones, Walled Lake, bridesmaid; and Miss Jean Lemon, Northville, junior bridesmaid. They wore tulle over taffeta formal of teal blue, yellow and baby blue, respectively.

Dressed in pink, little Linda Lemon served as flower girl. Ronnie Lemon was ring bearer.

Serving as best man was David Hacker of Farmington. Ushers

Blue Star
Mothers
L. MCINTYRE

The regular business meeting of the Blue Star Mothers for September was held on Thursday, September 20, at the Clarenceville Fire Hall.

A report on the Southeast District meeting held in Detroit, September 11, was given. Final plans were also made for the fourteenth anniversary luncheon and party of the Farmington Chapter to be held at the Clarenceville Methodist Church at 28312 Grand River on Wednesday, October 3, at 12:30 p. m. Reservation requests should be sent to Mary Fox, 21545 Jefferson Street, Farmington, or may be made by calling GR 4-0146. Reservations must be in prior to September 30 and should be made as early as possible, officials indicated.

Tuesday, September 18, the Past Presidents Club of Michigan met in Novi with Mrs. Ethel Lint who will serve as president of the Southeast District during the coming year, and Past Presidents Lucile Langley, Lettie McIntyre and Ethel Whitefoot as well as present Farmington Chapter President, Margaret Kahri.

Lettie McIntyre, Irene Krueger and Fern Ramage were in attendance at the Northeast District meeting held in Ovid, Michigan, on Friday.

Plans are now being made for the Blue Star Mothers' annual Blue Daisy Days to be held on October 5 and 6. Proceeds from the sale of daisies go for hospital and rehabilitation work among our veterans in local hospitals and in homes where needed.

An interesting program has been planned. Alice Brown will show colored pictures of her recent trip to India and the Orient.

IT'S A BOY

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Calvin McKay of 19918 Inkster Road, Detroit, on September 23 at 5 p. m. at Harper Hospital in Detroit. Named Calvin Roy, he weighed 7 pounds, 7 ounces at birth.

Proud maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schweitzer of Farmington. Mrs. McKay is the former Helen Schweizer.

MR. and MRS. RICHARD F. HARTUNG

United In Marriage
At St. Martin's Church

At a ceremony recently at St. Martin's Episcopal Church, Nancy Jean Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon D. Moog of 20061 Noguee, Detroit, became the bride of Richard F. Hartung, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hartung of Clearwater Beach, Florida.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Reverend William Logan before an altar decorated with coral and white gladioli with candelabra covered with white flowers.

Given away by her father, the bride wore a white cantilly lace and nylon tulle gown with a chapel train. It featured a circular nose-length veil in place. A crown of seed pearls and iridescent sequins held a fingertip veil in place. She carried a cascade of white roses and stephanotis.

Serving as maid-of-honor was Miss Marcia Irving of Grand Rapids. She wore a gown of ballerina length in coral crystal with a scoop neck, three-quarter length sleeves, a darker coral cummerbund and mock bow of velvet, and a bouffant skirt. Her hat was a mock crown of velvet topped with seed pearls holding a circular nose-length veil in place. Mils of velvet were worn. She carried a cascade of coral roses.

Bridesmaids were Miss Sharon Moreland and Miss Maureen Dailley of Farmington and Miss Karen Russell of Livonia. They wore gowns identical to the maid-of-honors' in coral crystal with darker coral velvet cummerbunds and mock bows. They carried yellow rose cascade bouquets.

Claudia Jean Tesch of Farmington, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a coral lace and tulle gown with a headband of coral dotted with seed pearls. She carried a basket of coral rose petals.

Robert Stout, Pontiac, served as best man. Edward Barr of Grand Rapids served as head usher and was assisted by Theodore Krause and Thomas Hemminger, both of Algonac.

For the wedding the bride's mother chose an ash of roses chantilly lace dress with a spread V-neck, cap sleeves and a skirt that flared slightly from the hips. Her accessories included a hat of rose satin covered with lace the same as her dress, long ashes-of-roses tulle gloves and a clutch that flared slightly from the hips. The bridegroom's mother chose a beige brocade sheath dress with scoop neck and bolero jacket, short sleeves and trimmed with fur. She wore brown shoes and carried a brown leather purse adorned with yellow roses and a
