THE USED BOOK Sale conducted by the Farmington Branch of the A.A.U.W. last Thursday and Friday from a tent in front of the Township Hall was a huge success. Over three-fourths of the 2,000 books put up for sale at nominal costs were disposed of, A.A.U.W. officials indicated. A small group is shown above looking over books for sale.

MRS. WILLIAM SMITH

GR. 4-8292

Thursday night, October 11, the regular meeting of the "Staman Sitchers" was held. Thirty-four women gathered at the home of Mrs. William Smith on Rocky Crest Road to sew 100 cancer pads. Co-hostesses with Mrs. Nellie Lott and Joanne Smith.

After the sewing of pads, President Zora Cross called the business meeting to order. After the formal proceedings, authorization was given for the purchase of a 50-cup percolator coffee pot, power given to Fran Christensen to make the purchase.

Margaret Sivy, Halloween party chairman, spoke on the coming event and a slip was passed for all to sign for the particular dish they wished to bring. Any one who has not yet made their reservations for their children and themselves are asked to call Jean Lutzen, GR. 4-6521; Margaret Sivy, GR. 4-4784; Zora Cross, GR. 4-6518, or Joanne Smith, GR. 4-8292, at once. Reservations must be made no later than Saturday of this week.

Following the business meeting refreshments were served. Two new members were welcomed to their first "sitchers" get-together—Hazel McKee and Gladys Hogan. Gladys will have the next pinning "brunch" at her Belmont Road home on Thursday, November 1.

Five-year-old Bobby Hanby underwent a tonsillectomy, Friday, at Mt. Carmel Mercy hospital. She came home on Saturday minus those trouble-makers and her adenoids.

Jean and John Warren have moved here from Buffalo, and are now settled in the light brown tri-level on Rocky Crest Road.

Scout Troop 48 Holds Camp-Out

Under the supervision of Scoutmaster Dan Duquet and six co-leaders, Farmington Boy Scout Troop 48 went on a fall camp-out at the Highland Recreation Area over the week end.

Tenderfoot Scouts took a 5 mile hike and traveled along nature trails. Many pictures and movies were taken of nature in all her glory.

For the benefit of the parents' movies taken on the AuSable trip in August will be shown at the next court of honor.

The boys and fathers are now making plans for the next camp-out which will, without any doubt, take place on the same hills and trails with skis, sleds and toboggans.

A committee met last Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Nyland of Cotswold Road to plan two Halloween parties for the children and young people of the subdivision.

Notices will be sent out this coming week about the parties; it was indicated.

Following the meeting refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Weiss of Argonne Road entertained Mr. and Mrs. George Booth of Toledo, Ohio, as house guests over the past week end. Sunday afternoon the group attended the Detroit Lion's football game.

Record-breaking non-farm mortgage activity in 1955 totaled $28 billion, which is 50 per cent higher than the $18 billion total of 1952.

Recently social security benefits were increased and extended to ten million more workers.

did in pine. The living room of the Taylor home is Early American, in prints of red and beige, with pale green walls.

Ron and June met after their school years at a party in Highland Park, where June is from. She attended Junior College there, while Ron studied engineering at Louisiana State University. He now works for the Benton Corporation in Detroit, doing work in experimental labs in the field of hydraulic engineering.

STRAIGHT REPUBLICAN
NOVEMBER 6

This advertisement paid for by the Republican State Central Committee in the interest of better government.

ALBERT E. COBO

- Cobo gave Detroit its greatest era of progress. He can do the same for Michigan!
- Cobo, at the same time, held the line on taxes!
- Cobo reduced the bonded debt in Detroit, while bonded debt in Michigan under Williams increased by millions!
- Cobo has proved that he knows how to run government efficiently, economically, honestly —and for ALL the people!
