BPW Play Host To Students

The October meeting of the Farmington Business and Professional Women's Club was held Monday, October 15, at Huck's Redford Inn.

In honor of United Nations Week, the International Relations Committee, headed by Mrs. Isabelle Taylor, presented four Farmington High School girls who had spent the summer in other countries as exchange students. Jana Brown, Judy Cook and Sue Hymes each told of their experiences living with different families in Mexico. Barbara Place told of her trip to Turkey. They explained the customs, food, homes and points of interest they visited in the two countries.

Miss Ann Noor, an exchange student in Farmington from India, was also a guest. Miss Noor appeared in her native costume. Because foreign students are required to be in the country a certain length of time and master the English language before the Exchange Program permits them to speak to other organizations, she was not able to tell of her country at this time.

Further details of the Bake Sale were given. It is to be held on Saturday, October 20, in Hatton's Hardware, beginning at 9 a.m. The Health and Safety Committee is sponsoring the sale with proceeds to be used for the Well Baby Clinic. Anyone wishing to donate is requested to call Mrs. Jean Layn, chairman, at GR. 4-1044.

Announcement was made concerning the Small Business Clinic to be held at Kellogg Center, Michigan State University, East Lansing, on October 27-28. It was pointed out that the clinic is open to the public and anyone interested may get complete details by writing to Michigan State University or from any member of the Business and Professional Women's Club.

The next meeting will be held on November 12, which is the second Monday of the month. This is for one meeting only, not a permanent change, it was indicated. The Legislation and Public Affairs Committees will be in charge and have an interesting and informative program planned. Be sure to attend and bring your friends.
