

NOV. 1
DAVID CRANE, CLERGYMAN
Daily serial fiction strip with a warm, down-to-earth story.

NOV. 4
ASK ANDY!
He'll answer the children's questions and reward them with valuable prizes.

NOV. 5
DEAD ON ARRIVAL
Amazing true stories of how medical science is conquering death.

NOV. 11
IT HAPPENED LAST NIGHT
Beginning Earl Wilson's entertaining daily and Sunday Broadway column.

NOV. 12
COMPLETE GUIDE TO VETERANS' BENEFITS
If you or any member of your family served in the armed forces during any period since the Spanish-American war you'll want to save this valuable, exclusive series!

NOV. 18
JOHNNY REB and BILLY YANK
Thrill to the exciting adventures of these two foot-soldiers of the War between the States in this new full-color Sunday story.

NOV. 19
TRY GIVING YOURSELF AWAY
—and you can insure your own happiness! David Dunn shares his secrets of happy living with you in his best-selling book.

NOV. 24
SWEET LAND OF LIBERTY!
On Thanksgiving Day read this inspiring article about 20th century pilgrims.

NOV. 26
SOUVENIR
Margaret Truman takes you into her confidence and tells you the intimate story of her life.

NOV. 28
this rich crop of extra-good reading will appear only in The

Detroit Free Press

Order your paper home-delivered today! See your carrier boy or call

WHENRY BELL
LOCAL DISTRIBUTOR
Lincoln 7-0355

West Point Park News
Miss L. A. Ault
GR. 4-4294

A reunion of the Herman Schult family was held at their home on Shady Side Avenue October 21. The visit of Corporal Herbert Schult with his wife, Olga, and their three daughters, Ruth, Nelly and Miriam, from their way from Ft. Carson, Colorado to Germany, prompted the get-together. Twenty-four men, women and children were present. A potluck dinner was served.

Corporal Schult and his family, left early Friday morning, driving through to New York. They expected to embark for Germany on October 31. They may be overseas three years.

Mrs. Mildred Schult and her daughter, Janet, of Shady Side Avenue, her houseguests, Herbert Schult and his family, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Schult and their daughter from Northville, were all in attendance Thursday evening at a dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. James Maynard in Detroit. The dinner was arranged in honor of the hostess' brother, Corporal Schult and his family.

At a meeting of the Sunshine Sisters held in Neighborhood Church last Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Herbert Schult, who has been visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. Mildred Schult, was a guest of honor.

Young Mrs. Schult, who was born and brought up in Porto Rico, is a talented vocalist and delighted the ladies by singing a few sacred selections in Spanish. Mrs. Schult also told something of her plans to do Sunday School missionary work in Germany.

The next Sunshine meeting will be held in the Neighborhood Church on Wednesday, November 7, at 2 p.m.

A toy party, arranged as a Sunday School benefit and held in the Neighborhood Church Monday evening, October 22, proved quite a success. About thirty ladies were on hand to enjoy the huge display. Young girls of the Sunday School assisted in entertaining. At the close of the demonstration coffee and cake were served.

For a small Stanley party, ten ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. Robert Lang on Mayfield Avenue last Tuesday morning. There was an hour of games and contests with almost everyone winning a prize and everyone taking home one or more useful souvenirs. At noon a tasty lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Grant of Farmington Road are grandparents again. Tuesday, October 22 a five pound 13 ounce daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Don Masters in Wyandotte. Mrs. Masters is the former Iva Grant. She plans to call her baby girl Kellie Annette.

Friday, October 26, a 7 pound 10 ounce daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Wiltzie, of Mayfield Avenue.

A Day at Northland party was enjoyed Tuesday by a group consisting of Mrs. Forrest Ault, of Hubbard Avenue, her sister, Mrs. Jessie Woods of Inkster, their mother, Mrs. Updgrove from Flint and several other relatives from this locality and from Flint.

Richard Varhol of the U.S. Navy, who is training in a Philadelphia hospital, spent last week end with relatives and friends in this vicinity.

Ervin and Vyril Bohlinger from Loon Lake, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Roberts on Mayfield Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Ault, of Mayfield Avenue, spent last week end visiting among relatives in western Pennsylvania.

Last week end the Sandaus of Hubbard Avenue visited Niagara Falls.

Cecil Willet, Mayfield Avenue, was one of the successful bow and

Kendallwood Kids' Halloween Party Big Success

The first annual party for children in the Kendallwood area held Wednesday night was a huge success. There were more than 300 children entertained at the Water Pump area near Twelve Mile Farmington Roads. There were a great many goblins, spooks and witches who showed up at the party and everyone made a lot of noise and had a lot of fun.

Prizes were awarded for costumes and games and the children received noise-makers, candy, donuts, cider and other refreshments. The party was sponsored by the Youth Committee of Kendallwood Association and the Kendallwood Newcomers Club. Everything was free due to the generosity of the various merchants, such as National Food Market, Siler's Market, Brown's Market, Carnation Milk Company, Thompson Brown Company and Gordon Williamson Company.

"LO AND BEHOLD" FARMINGTON PLAYERS

West Point Park News
Miss L. A. Ault
GR. 4-4294

arrow hunters last week end. The Willets now have a fine supply of venison on hand.

Little Miss Gale Casto of Mayfield Avenue has been convalescing from a severe attack of pneumonia.

Mrs. Frank Posner of Farmington Road is still ill and will shortly enter a hospital again for treatment.

Friends in this community hear that very recently Mrs. William Zwahlen died in Detroit. Her husband, who survives her, for a number of years resided, with his first wife, in what is now known as the Oldham property on Farmington Road. Mrs. Lillian Zwahlen died about ten years ago.

Sir Joshua Reynolds, England's great 18th century portrait painter, turned out 3,000 canvases and painted 6777 portraits within five years. Deafness which forced him to use an ear trumpet did not prevent his success.

"LO AND BEHOLD" FARMINGTON PLAYERS

Holiday Bazaar Plans Complete For Nov. 3

Farmington area residents have been invited to a Holiday Bazaar to be given by the St. Robert Bellarmine Altar Sodality on Saturday, November 3 from 12 noon to 5 p.m. in the church hall on Inkster Road at W. Chicago, Redford Township.

There will be gifts for all age groups as well as a variety of games and cartoons, it was indicated. Refreshments will be available for young and old, it was added.

Included will be a doll booth and booths featuring handmade work, jewelry, Christmas baked goods and a variety of other items.

Library Expands Record Service

The Redford Public Library disclosed this week that they now have available for circulation and home use the latest long playing recordings in a variety of categories.

The LP Records consist of the best in artist, performance and high fidelity, an official for the library said.

One hundred new records will open this new service at the library, it was indicated. The LP records (33 1/3 RPM) will be rented at a nominal charge. The standard 78 RPM albums will remain free of charge and will circulate the usual two albums per week, it was added.

The Redford Public Library is located at 2151 W. McNichols at Grand River.

"LO AND BEHOLD" FARMINGTON PLAYERS

Teen Club Dance Attracts 300

More than 300 teenagers were in attendance last Friday night at the weekly Guys and Dolls Teen Club dance at the V.F.W. Hall on Seven Mile Road near Grand River.

The evening was spent dancing to the music of the "Continental" Frankie Castro sing many of his most popular song hits. Cider and donuts were served by the Clarencville Opti-Mrs. Club.

This Friday evening, November 2, Jerry Paul's quintet will furnish music for the dance, with dancing from 8 p.m. until 12 midnight. An invitation has been extended to all teenagers of the area to attend the dance regardless of whether or not they are presently members of the club.

If the truth is unpleasant, most people would rather not hear it.

YWCA Coffee Hour Planned

The membership Committee of Northwest Young Women's Christian Association announced this week that the second in a series of coffee hours will be held Wednesday morning, November 7, from 10 to 11 a.m., at the Branch Building, 17268 Redford Avenue.

Mrs. Norton B. Elliott, 15025 Artesian, is the chairman of the Branch Membership Committee which is sponsoring these coffee hours each month.

All members and friends of the YWCA from the Farmington area are invited. A special feature of interest to women will be presented each time, YWCA officials said.

On November 7, Miss Edna Brown, 14685 Warwick, drawing and sketching teacher at the Y, will give a short talk entitled, "I Wish I Could Draw."

Mrs. Samuel Classer, 13854 Murray Hill, is in charge of the hostesses and Mrs. Raymond Stuckey, 25940 Grand River, will pour.

Other coffee hours will be scheduled on the second Wednesday of each month.

VOTE, November 6th.

FOR JOHN B. MARTIN
Secretary of State
REPUBLICAN - NOV 6

DRIVE THE DRUNK DRIVER OFF OUR ROADS!

EFFECTIVE NOVEMBER 1

Broader Banking and Complete Trust Services through the merger of

FARMINGTON STATE BANK and NATIONAL BANK OF DETROIT

Having been approved by the boards of directors and stockholders of both banks, the merger of The Farmington State Bank and National Bank of Detroit takes effect at the close of business on Wednesday, October 31, 1956. On November 1 the bank opens as the Farmington Office of National Bank of Detroit.

The same people will continue to serve you at the same location. The board of directors of The Farmington State Bank will become members of an advisory committee to help maintain the tradition of strong community service and friendly, personal attention which the bank's customers have long enjoyed.

Broader banking services

You'll find every banking service you need—right here under one roof—which means you can conveniently handle all your financial matters in one place at one time.

In addition to checking and savings accounts, the bank offers Savings Certificates that earn 2 1/4% interest, mortgage loans, and low-cost Instalstons (instalment loans) to help you finance a car purchase, home improvements, or personal needs. And loans for business expansion will now be more readily available because of our increased lending ability.

Complete Trust Services, too

You will be able to obtain complete Trust Services through this office. Our management personnel will gladly acquaint you with the Trust Services available.

New banking hours

The bank will extend services on Wednesdays until 3:00 p.m., and the Sidewalk Windows will open each morning at 8:30 a.m. instead of 9:00 a.m. to permit the discontinuance of Saturday banking. The daily schedule of banking hours will be:

In-bank Hours:
Monday through Thursday—9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.
Friday—9:00 a.m. to 7:30 p.m.
Sidewalk Window Hours:
Monday through Thursday—8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
Friday—8:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m.

A warm welcome awaits you

Our friendly staff is eager to help you, your family, your friends. Won't you come in and see us soon!

Members Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation