YOU DON'T NEED A GUN--

To get a bird from us. What we're talkin' is that even if we hate to admit it Thanksgiving is nigh unto bein' here and if you want a fresh dressed turkey or somethin' we would like to know just about how large so we'll know what to have ready. We gotta place our order soon too. They will be strictly fresh birds. Now for this weeks goodies, right away we think of some sauer kraut. You can get 2 small cans of Defiance kraut fer 25c and a nice lean pork butt or some pork steak fer 49c a lb. Fer more pork there's the rib end of a pork loin roast fer 39c a lb. with some apple sauce from Michigan apples what sell 3 lbs. fer 29c. Then there's some Farmer Peet's link pork sausage fer 59c a package and to go around it a pancake made with bisquick what is 39c fer a large package. Fer a gimmick this week you can have a lb. of fresh beef liver and a lb. of Farmer Peets sliced bacon fer just 99c. Then Sunday how about a blade cut chuck roast fer 49c a lb. About as far as you go there is a bunch of carrots fer a vegetable but we do have some nice squash. Fer a quickie some night when you've been out playing all day could you git by with a little salad and 4 frozen Birdseye meat pies fer $1.00? What kind wouldcha like to have—chicken, turkey or beef? Now don't forget to order yer Thanksgiving fowl, will yuh?

EXTRA! We expect the pony express will bring us fresh oysters.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lint, Jr. of Seminole, Detroit, became the parents of a son, Helmut Alan. He was born October 27 at Ford hospital. His weight was 5 pounds, 4 ounces.

The new baby was welcomed home by two sisters and a brother.

Alfred Jr. attended Farmington High School and Mrs. Lint attended Redford High School.

Paternal grandparents are the Alfred Lint Sr. of Redford, and Farmington. Mrs. Lint's parents are deceased.

Robert H. Ham of Oakland avenue was married October 20 at Grace Lutheran Church in Detroit to Miss Elfriede Schultz of Detroit.

He is the son of the E. J. Ham of Oakland avenue, Farmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave (Nancy Lutz) Wyman and son, who recently moved to 23301 Farmington Road, have just returned from a combined vacation and business trip to New York City.

Nancy and Dave boarded the Queen Mary at the dock while there. They also went on a sight-seeing trip of New York City and attended the premiere of the movie, "Giant." The Wymans dined at the Village Vanguard, a popular eating place in New York, and moved to other places.

Nancy was graduated from Farmington High School in 1955. She is employed by a travel bureau here. Dave was graduated from Farmington High School in 1953.

Susan Fuller entertained her Girl Scout Troop 171 and Hal-lows-eve party at her home on Glenview Drive. All of the girls came in costume and played the usual games, such as bobbing for apples and ghost stories. Refreshments consisted of cider, donuts, apples and candy.

The Darwins of Larson's Floral have had Mrs. Larson's father, H. B. Palmer, as their guest. Mr. Palmer flew here from Neenah, Wisconsin, for the visit.

The F. B. Fullers of Glenview Drive have been entertaining out-of-town guests the past week. They are Mrs. Fuller's mother, Mrs. M. Corcoran, and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Jones, an uncle and aunt of Madison, Wisconsin.

They were welcomed by a round of dinner parties, the first being a family dinner held at the home of a cousin in Birmingham. Next the F. B. Fullers gave a dinner at home, followed by a sight-seeing tour of Detroit, Dearborn and surrounding area. To climax their visit, a farewell dinner was held at the Rotunda Inn at Dearborn.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brennan and children of Orchard Lake Road went to Chicago for the weekend. They visited the John Brennans and other relatives living there.

Mrs. Richard Palmer of Oak-lawn Avenue is improving slowly in Ann Arbor from recent surgery on her spine.

Since Mrs. Palmer is one of the newer residents here, she undoubtedly would be pleased to hear from her good neighbors in the block.

Mrs. Alan Foster, a resident of Farmington, for 21 years, has moved to Fremont, Ohio, where she will make her home.

She was an ardent church worker at the Salem Evangelical and Reformed Church of Farmington. She indicated recently that she misses her old friends very much and would appreciate hearing from them. Her new address is 640 Herbster Street, Fremont, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Connolly of Power Road welcomed Mrs. Connolly's mother, Mrs. Fred Renard of Amherstburg, Ontario, for a week's visit.

Mr. Floyd Griffin of Alyce Kay, Farmington, is hospitalized at the Beaumont hospital in Royal Oak.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis King and family of Oakland Avenue and Wayne Crawford of Manning, Farmington, have returned from Sunny Lake Ranch near Glennie, Michigan. Mr. King, John and David King and Wayne Crawford spent several days hunting. The rest of the family enjoyed long walks and discovered new trails in the fall sunshine.

A political coffee hour was held Friday of last week at the home of Mrs. Morrison Estep of Floral. Speakers were Fred Ziem, Ted Hughes, Frank Irons and others.

Co-hostesses were Mrs. Darwin Larson and Mrs. Morrison Estep of Floral.

Attend Annual Apparel Market

Ed Wingard of the Farmington Davis and Lent Men's and Boys' Clothing Store, along with J. C. Hanna of the Plymouth store, were in attendance at the men's and boys' apparel market held in Detroit October 28, 29 and 30.

This spring's apparel market, held annually around this time of year, was conducted at both the Statler and Sheraton-Cadillac hotels. The event is sponsored by the Michigan Apparel Club, Inc., a non-profit corporation with offices located at the Cadillac Tower in Detroit.

They met with other managers and owners of men's and boys' clothing stores and departments throughout the state to look over the new materials, styles and color trends in clothing to be offered for spring wear in 1957. Or-ders were also placed for the lines of merchandise selected by the various stores to offer their customers.

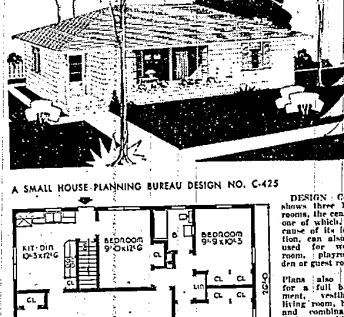

All types of merchandise were displayed at the market, including slacks, shirts, suits, sport-wear, ties, underwear, etc. Wingard indicated.

Self-love is a cup without any bottom; you might pour all the great lakes into it, and never fill it up.—O. W. Holmes.

FARMINGTON'S Community House came a little closer to reality last Monday when a check for $773.19 was presented to the Association. The money represents the proceeds from Farmington's "Day in the Country" project held in September. Mrs. W. Allen Nelson, right, is shown presenting the check to Don DeGroot, president of the Community House Association, while Mrs. Harry Farmer, vice-president and Bob Potter, treasurer, look on.

A SMALL HOUSE PLANNING BUREAU DESIGN NO. C-425

DESIGN C-425 shows three bedrooms, the central one of which, because of its location, can also be used for a study, dining room, playroom, den or garage.

Plans also call for a full bathroom, living room, bath and a breakfast dining room-alternate. The kitchen has cabinets on two walls, double windows and floor-to-ceiling glass doors.
