Around The Circle In Staman Acres

MRS. WILLIAM SMITH GR. 4-8292

The Staman Stitches met last Wednesday evening at the Rocky Crest Road home of Ellen Ranzburger, with co-hostesses Colleen Chadwick, Norma Larson and Charlotte Kemp.

Mary Charlotte helped out when Mrs. Larson was kept in because of a mild illness. Pumpkin pie with whipped cream and hot mince were served as refreshments.

The group voted to continue meeting on the second Wednesday of each month. In the event the first of the month is a Thursday, the phasing meeting shall be postponed until the second Thursday.

Captain Alice Olson is happily on the job after the effects of the United Fund campaign, for she announces that Staman Acres housewives gave a total of $137.60 to date, with some money still in the drive are Judy Hanby, Fran Christensen, Eileen Ranzburger and Margaret Wheeler.

The Ann Arbor weather proved fine for the football game Saturday, and Margaret and Leo Sivy joined the crowd going to the stadium. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Redford of Redford visited the Sivys to the Western Golf Club trip, which included breakfast at the club, bus ride and dinner upon return.

The Sivys took Stuart, Steve and Susan to the ice show a week ago Sunday.

The hunting season has claimed the attention of many a Staman Acres male, and some of the gentlemen, too. Marvin Kemp and sons, Bob and Terry, went hunting at the invitation of friends and tried their luck at several farms. Bob got his first pheasant and was the only lucky one. Marvin went to Seabawing the opening day of the duck season and he and his party dropped 20 ducks.

Norm Schupp recently took in some pheasant hunting, concentrating in the Vassar and Grass Lake areas. He bagged a pheasant at Grass Lake, and induced Helen to go on a trip there with him. Norm is pleased over the performance of his dogs, 10-month-old Springer spaniels.

Lady Luck was kind to Larry Schafer, who bagged a squirrel on his trip with the family to Farmville. Dick and son joined the hunt at the farm of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morlock. Alice, usually counted on for such sport, has foregone the pleasure this year.

At her Rocky Crest Road home, things were humming as Alice's guests assembled at a dinch which, listened to the election returns November 6 and forgot their bidding.

Dick Schafer's father received a surprise birthday party Saturday night when the Schafers entertained the senior Schafers, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schafer, and young Billy.

Mary Westfall, of Staman Circle Drive, recently entertained friends from her former neighborhood at lunch. Guests included Mrs. Cornelius Berberow of Detroit, Mrs. Steve Macowski and Mrs. Arthur Woods, Jr., Mary's niece from Birmingham.

Sissy, around the corner on Staman Circle, also feteed three old friends who came to visit and enjoy luncheon a week ago Thursday. From Tommy's Lake came Bob and Catherine Williams have had a busy social whirl, having as dinner guests Catherine's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stier. The Stiers were then driven to Willow Run, where they caught a play for Clearwater, Florida, where they will join Bob's folks, the Ralph Williams.

Catherine joined her sister, Miss Lula Stier, and Joyce Thompson of Rocky Crest Road for a luncheon trip to Lansing one recent Thursday, but met with no success when they tried to contact Fred Thompson. He was busy in his classes at Michigan State University, where he is a freshman.

Patricia Freeze (Mrs. Earl Freeze of Staman Circle Drive) went on a jaunt recently to Cleveland, Ohio, with her sisters, Mrs. John Roth and Mrs. Walter Watson, and her aunt, Mrs. Hewitt. The occasion was to celebrate the seventy-fourth birthday of a friend, Mrs. Charles Gillette.

Several Staman Acres have reported that residents are letting their dogs run onto the newly seeded lawns and planted shrubs of other home owners. There is no restriction as to this matter, but the dogs have become a nuisance to some people.

Common courtesy dictates the rules in such matters as this and the past performances of Staman Acres families proves that in this affair, too, prompt attention will be given the problem.

Your reporter wishes to thank the people who have heeded the call to contribute promptly and with gusto to their column. A phone call morning, noon or evening is acceptable. A written note dropped in the mailbox at 3588 Staman Circle Drive will also be welcomed.

Please call in your news as soon as it occurs, from Monday to Sunday, and it will be written up in the column for the next issue going to press. A great deal of work goes into processing the news after it leaves Staman Acres and arrives at the ENTERPRISE office, so early news gathering is important.
