Miss L. A. Ault GR. 4-4294

A dinner party honoring the birthday of Mrs. Forrest Ault of Hubbard Avenue was held Saturday evening, November 10. Only relatives were present. On hand from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Porter from New London, Ohio, who were last week-end house guests of the Forrest Aults, on Hubbard Avenue.

Phyllis and Cathie Read, from South Lyon, were Wednesday guests of their grandmother, Mrs. Austin Ault, on Brentwood Avenue.

A shirk shower honoring Mrs. Homer Coolman, Jr. was held at the Home Coolman, Sr., residence on Shadylane Avenue, Monday evening, November 11. The guest list included relatives and a few old friends of the family. Acting as hostesses were Mrs. Norbert Schmidt, Mrs. Gerald Roberts, Mrs. Richard Walker, Miss Ruth Ann Coolman and Miss Oweneth Schmidt. The young mother-to-be received a number of handsome layette gifts.

A Stanley party, given as a benefit for Neighborhood School and held in Neighborhood Church last Tuesday evening, proved to be a pleasant, friendly get-together of neighbors. Young girls connected with the Sunday school acted as hostesses and were most gracious and efficient. A girl's prize was won by Dolores Varhol. Mrs. Fred Kanski was awarded the door prize. The young ladies served cake and coffee.

Mrs. Eugene Helson from Whittier, California, spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Willet, on Mayfield Avenue. In the evening the Willets and Mrs. Helson young friends in Wayne were guests of Mrs. Helson.

Harvey Taylor, with his daughter, Mrs. Genevieve Smithling, and her son, Berry, were Sunday, November 11, guests of Mrs. Christina

Rehahn, on Mayfield Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Porter and their children, Carol Anne, John and David, from New London, Ohio, were last week-end house guests of the Forrest Aults, on Hubbard Avenue.

Phyllis and Cathie Read, from South Lyon, were Wednesday guests of their grandmother, Mrs. Austin Ault, on Brentwood Avenue.

Harold McVicar, ShadySide Avenue, and Howard Middlewood, of Farmington Road, left together the middle of last week for a hunting trip in northern Michigan.

The Heltons of Mayfield Avenue left Wednesday on a hunting trip. They expect to return shortly after Thanksgiving. A Grattop of Mayfield is also on a hunting trip.

The Norbert Schmidt family of Loveland Avenue expect to move east early next month.

Demonstration Group Meets

The Farmington Home Demonstration Group, sponsored by the Michigan State University Cooperative Extension Service, met last Wednesday, November 15, with Mrs. F. Larremore as hostess.

A lesson on "Food and Nutrition" was presented by Mrs. Larremore and Mrs. H. McCague. Theme of the lesson was "Watch the Calories and the Pounds—Will Take Care of Themselves." Ladies present were Mrs. F. A. Platz, Mrs. C. Mortimer, Mrs. William Thornton, Mrs. R. Brent, Mrs. E. Marks, Mrs. William Brock, Mrs. C. Meyers and L. Blatter.

All the ladies present, with the exception of Mrs. Platz, who was attending an executive extension meeting, visited their adopted ward at Northville State Hospital on Tuesday. Besides games, food and singing, dancing was enjoyed with the patients. The group has now also adopted the men's ward of 25 on the same floor.

The group will give a Christmas party for both wards at the hospital on December 11. They will hold their own Christmas party on December 13.

Gentlemen: I was pleasantly surprised to find my letter to you published in the Letter Box and wish to take this means of conveying my deepest thanks for publishing it along with your answers to the Water System in Section 36. It has cleared the situation in my mind and I am certain has been a benefit to many others who are somewhat recent arrivals in our community. Keep up your good reporting and I know that a better informed citizenry will find the best solutions to all our "growing pains." Very truly yours, George L. Squires
