Patricia Bartkus Wed
To Tom McGarrie Nov. 3

Patricia Ann Bartkus of 30785 Grand River, Farmington, and Thomas McGarrie of 1223 North Dragon, Detroit, were united in marriage on November 3, at Our Lady of Sorrows Church, before an altar adorned with white mums and gladioli.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Reverend John Dunn.

Patricia's dress was floor length with a stand-up queen's collar. It featured a cascade of Chantilly lace and pleated ruffles down the sides, which were hand beaded. A scalloped fingertip veil was held in place by a crown of pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade bouquet of carnations and lily of the valley, with tiny silk butterflies scattered throughout.

Attending her as her maid-of-honor was Dorothy Wolfe, dressed in a floor length gown of coral crystalline and tulle. It featured a sash that fell into a fish-tail sweep. Dorothy carried a cascade of turquoise mums and ivy, and wore a crown of turquoise applied with pearls and sequins.

Joann Fisher, a bridesmaid, wore a gown and head piece identical to Dorothy's and carried a bouquet of yellow mums and ivy. Mrs. Schaefer sang several selections for the wedding mass. Serving as best man was Robert Pryor, brother of the bridegroom, and Peter Bartkus acted as usher.

Mrs. Bartkus selected a champagne beige lace dress with a train and accessories and wore a dyed-to-look cascade of aqua carnations. Mrs. McGarrie wore a grey lace over pink dress with pink accents.

The last meeting for 1956 of the Botsford Garden Club was held last week at the home of Mrs. Georgia Dennis on Dresden Avenue. Nineteen members attended.

The nominating committee submitted the 1957 slate of officers and after a number of suggestions made from the floor, Mrs. Pearl Marks made the motion to accept the nominating committee's slate. All members voted in favor of the following officers: president, Mrs. Anna Keller; first vice president, Mrs. Maybelle Mayer; second vice president, Mrs. Margaret Ward; recording secretary, Mrs. Emma Carter; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Peg Mann; treasurer, Mrs. Julie Nedz.

Mrs. Jean Wilson of 12317 St. Francis, Livonia, extended an invitation to all members to attend a gathering at her home on December 10 at 10 a.m. for the purpose of making Christmas wreaths and with annual reports given by all officers and committee chairmen.

She asked that those attending bring their own materials and necessary tools. Mrs. Anna Keller, Mrs. Katherine Martin, Mrs. Maybelle Mayer and Mrs. Pearl Marks will be on hand to demonstrate and instruct.

The meeting was closed with a short talk by Mrs. Katherine Martin who displayed several beautiful arrangements of dried materials on drift wood.

There will be no meetings in December and January.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Schreiber, daughter, Peggy and son, Richard, recently attended the opera Carmen at the Masonic Temple in Detroit. Richard came home from the University of Michigan where he is working on his Master's Degree in nuclear research, to attend the opera.

TV Star To Head Middlebelt PTA
Fair Attractions On December 8

The Middlebelt P.T.A. Fair is masquerading as a genuine western roundup this year. All the usual attractions and some new ones will be found at the Middlebelt School on December 8, beginning at 1:30 p.m.

TV's Justice Colt will make a personal appearance at the school in the "Old Grey House" at 2:00, 2:20 and 3:00 p.m.

There will be a "Chuck Waggon" from which food for the whole family will be served. The "Trading Post" will feature plants and decorations, popcorn and pop. Needlework, white elephants, baked goods and home made candy will be found in the "Emporium". The "Silver Dollar Canteen" will have games for the older fry and young teens. There will be dancing. All brave cowboys will also want to visit "Ghosttown." The "Talent-For-Fun-Show" will follow Justice Colt's visit.

Santa Claus has promised to drop in from the North Pole at 2:30 p.m. to talk with the children. A day of fun is being planned for all cowboys and cowgirls. The whole family is urged to attend and get into the Roundup Day spirit.

The economy buy in apples comes in the firm crisp small sizes, says Consumer Marketing Information Agent, Mrs. Josephine Lawyer. There are more vitamins and minerals in small apples than in the large ones. Most of these food nutrients are stored near the skin, and since there is more skin surface on the small apples, these are the best health value.
